xxsurvivalistxx	After being separated for eight years, Bomb Girls was the first thing my Dad and I were able to share together. We didn't have much in common, the silences were awkward and painful. But we shared a love of history and watching Bomb Girls together always made the visits easier. We miss this show. It was an important foundation for rebuilding our shakey relationship. Just wanted to share so everyone could understand just how important this show is to me. <3 SAVE BOMBGIRLS!!!

fragrantwoods

Thanks to tumblr and randomness, I found "Bomb Girls" and it's killing me in the best way. I love everything about it (except the part where it gets cancelled). Another reminder that Canadian TV is so often awesome. I know I should stretch out the watching...but I know I'll be marathoning, then be sad it's over.

Bomb Girls has to get picked up by a network. It's really clear how much people love it. I think the show is really unique and any network that passes on it is crazy.

Missy J.	I really enjoy watching this show. It's a big difference between all that pop culture crap you see nowadays. I always wanted to have an idea what women, and people in general went through in the 1940's.

Ella B.	Why is there no Bomb Girls merchandise?!?! Bomb Girls posters and mugs are a must. I need McRae on my wall!

Eldiablo E.	I am trying to watch this on Netflix but the episodes either jump about without warning or are badly edited as people disappear, then they are back in the next episode. I just cant get my head around it. Lorna mysteriously becomes pregnant, episode 3 has got thefts, according to the premise but none occurs, nope sorry difficult to watch, I am now more confused.

Cherlyn M.	Still don't understand why this was cancelled.
Erica F.	This was cancelled because the masses are idiots.
Laetitia S.	It's a shame for the show, but at least we'll have an ending to the story, thanks !
Kirsten M.	When global cancelled bomb girls my 10 yr old son stefan got very upset he and i would record it and watch it together on saturday night before the hockey game because he really loved the story about girls during the war it's a perspective that the kids these days and most adults don't know happened during the war.. it's a travesty that it was cancelled.. reality tv sucks the big one!!!!
Katie J.	Your show is by far one of the best shows I have seen on television (or in my case streaming on Netflix) This is one of the best series I have seen. It is so refreshing to see something that is well written with real content to the story-line. I had despaired before I saw your show, because there is so much bad programming out there that is targeted to teenagers or young adults showing no intellectual content, instead pandering to sensationalism and people's libido. I for one would remain a loyal fan.

Amanda W.

Bomb Girls is an amazing, unique, and inspiring show! While flipping through Netflix I saw it and was instantly intrigued. After the first episode I was immediately hooked. As a US citizen, I was grateful to have such a great opportunity to watch the portrayal of Canada in the war unfold. I can honestly say that I've never been so personally invested in the characters of a TV show. When I found out there wouldn't be a 3rd season I was devastated. People need these kind of role models! Bring it back.

Mikyn R.

I started watching Bomb Girls on Netflix recently and I love it! All the characters are great and the show is exciting. I have to know what happens next, they can't cancel it!

Thomas R.

I am an American viewer who watched Bomb girls since the initial pilot show. In fact, i tried to stream the show during its initial Canadian broadcast but was blocked from doing so. I had to wait until a U.S. network picked it up. The show was well cast with a good story line. It's a shame that broadcast economics overshadows content quality.

Tiffany M.

I love the story & all the characters!
Please save this show!!!

Vikky/Fran

please oh please do not cancel Bomb Girls. There is so little quality tv to watch. Bomb Girls is one of my favorites. Excellent acting, script, photography etc.

George C.

Please have a 3rd season of Bomb Girls. WE love it. I can remember the day the II WW Ended!

Meg V.

Hello thank you for taking the time to read this short plead. I discovered Bomb Girls in Netflix about 3 days ago and I have fallen in love with this magical show. I have watched every episode (some more than once) and I was heartbroken when I heard that this fabulous show what sadly canceled. I feel that it was a mistake to cancel such a powerful show. This show means to much to me because of one character in particular, Betty. I have been struggling with being a closeted lesbian in a small town for years now and I strongly relate to Betty. I felt for the first time that I was fully represented on TV. Everything Betty did and felt I have and am feeling now. More than once her story has brought me to tears. I see her as a strong proud and powerful role model for me. I'm begging you not to cancel this life changing show I must know what happens to Betty and the rest of the amazing characters. This is my favorite show and I feel like it deserves to be on TV. Again thank you for reading and please consider saving bomb girls.

Olivia W.

This is kind of a double letter; I'm writing almost as two people or from two different stances. And though the two views are rather different, they both convey a similar attachment and admiration for Bomb Girls. Firstly, I would like to express my enthusiasm for Bomb Girls from a culturally historical perspective. I'm interested in the history of women between World Wars I and II and their service for their country.

Unfortunately, this history is still relatively unknown and so grievously overlooked. It's so refreshing to finally have a show that not only introduces or revives this chapter of history in the minds of today's TV watchers, but also reveals both what women had to go through and how war is not something fought only on the frontlines. It is so rare to find a show that takes place during the times of war that doesn't depict women as either frail little creatures who simply gossip and pine and sigh away the days waiting for their true love to finally come home or as heartless witches who "comfort" soldiers right and left. So rare! I can imagine the seas of viewers enjoying the show to later tell themselves and others "oh, I didn't know it was like that; I didn't really think about that; I never imagined it to be so hard for women; I didn't think those women were so brave!" Generally, the historical accuracy of Bomb Girls in a TV/movie world where sex and explosions take center stage while the history and reality of the story are of no importance is both refreshing and a diamond to hold on to. It's portrayed so well and all the different aspects it touches are shown without any of that white-washed-shove-it-directly-in-your-face-and-on-a-platter political correctness typical of American shows. Indeed, it seems to portray more of a more objective view on the story, as if we were looking through a window into people's lives, a thing extremely hard to do, but so fantastic to watch when done correctly. History is generally overlooked on the basis of a rather mistaken notion that something already happened some time ago, so who cares now. Yet, we should care because these are the stories and events that create our identity, tell us where we come from, what we are capable of, both good and bad, and what we should strive for in the future. These women need to be spoken of! These women should be put in the spotlight, their history promoted as real and living proof that women can do and did much more than just write sweet letters while in their aprons. It is the great fault of the present to allow this rich history to crumble to pieces forgotten in the shadows of ignorance; this noble history of endurance and sacrifice for both women in general and Canada as a nation. How can they be remembered if no one will tell their story? You see, I am from Poland. As a Pole growing up in the United States (I moved back to Poland when I turned 18), I know the feeling of always being somewhat foreign no matter what you do. I also know the sad fact that though incredibly rich and influential, almost even the smallest scrap of Polish history is completely lost outside of Poland. Unfortunately, when it comes down to a more detailed history, such as women during wartime, this is completely lost even within Poland itself. Yet, I took heart in the fact that (here I'm speaking from the position of a non-Canadian) Canada in a certain way shares that same dismal fate. Just like most people find it hard to place Poland in the correct continent, those same people usually consider Canada a simple extension of the U.S.; just the 51st state. Since I have a soft spot for the forgotten and ignored, when I began to take an interest in women during World Wars I and II, I sooner or later came across Canada's contribution to the wars and was shocked with how little I had ever heard about it. This only intensified after having watched Bomb Girls. And it all came as enough of a shock that I decided to do something about it. I had toyed with the idea of creating a site dedicated to the service of Polish women during wartime (both in the military as well as the home front) for some time. Yet, Bomb Girls planted the idea in my head to do the same thing for Canadian women. It may be a small project for now (Facebook page- Women on the Front: Canada), but then again, you have to start somewhere. But, that's why I also almost had a heart attack and a half when I learned that Bomb Girls was being cancelled. I had thought that Canada would take more pride in it's history and in the contribution of its women and show this off not only to Canadians, but also to the rest of the world to see. Secondly, I fell in love with Bomb Girls on a much more personal level. With each episode, I found myself being drawn in more and more in a general fascination of what that time period looked like for women in Canada, but also with a curiosity of how all the characters' stories would play out. Yet, above all others, I fell in love with Betty of course. Her story and her character reflect mine sometimes to such an extent that I could swear somebody just put my self down on paper and asked someone else to play it; it's like watching yourself outside yourself. This year has not been kind to me to say the least. I somehow stumbled upon Bomb Girls at a particularly rough point in my life and I found myself immediately captivated. To watch a fantastic show is one thing, but when you find yourself, at times, almost practically watching your own life play out before you on screen, it's an experience nearly impossible to describe. To be honest, I don't think it would be an over exaggeration to say that Bomb Girls, especially Betty, in some way may have saved my life. H. Jackson Brown, Jr. once wrote "Never deprive someone of hope; it might be all they have." Sometimes, that hope can be found in an excellent TV show, in a very realistic character, even in a heart-wrenching story. It somehow ends up that you see your life on screen being played by someone else and instead of sitting there crying over the broken pieces, you end up cheering for that character, watching them survive one more day, telling them that it's not all that bad, supporting them in their mistakes and successes, believing that it will all be okay in the end. And if it's going to be ok for Betty, if Betty can do it, well then why the heck can't I? It's a small kind of miracle I suppose. I really can't stress enough how much I enjoy Bomb Girls, how spectacular of a show I think it is, and how heartbroken I am over the fact that was cancelled. I'm still hopeful that someone will pick up the show in the end, there is still so much more to been said and shown! Save Bomb Girls!

Bomb girls is an inspiration to all aspiring women in the workplace.

My husband and I live in Sacramento, California and have just finished watching the 2 seasons of Bomb Girls that we got through NetFlix. We "love" the show and have watched at least 2 episodes each evening. The story lines are great and the actors are all terrific in their parts. There is so little worth watching on TV anymore, that we tend to watch more through NetFlix. If this were aired in California, it would be on our "must watch" list. What a disappointed to see another great series bite the dust! Based on the reviews I have read, the only reason it didn't have a large audience in the 2nd season had nothing to do with the show - only the poor scheduling by management. Such a shame to cancel a great show for more mindless fare.

Gail K.

Yes Please Save the Bomb Girls!! I really like the Bomb Girls and was very disappointed to hear they were cancelled. By writing this email I am hoping that the power that be will change there minds on this. I must admit I normally don't like Canadian programming. But I really think Bomb Girl is just as good if not better than most of the programs out there. The Writers are great and the Actors go well together and really suit the parts. The program is very interesting to say the least. It has charm about it and I love the characters. What really kind of makes me mad is that I finally find a good show to watch and after a couple of years you cancel it. I should of just waited and watched the reruns there were only 18 episodes in all, you can hardly call that 2 years even. Finally Canada's puts out a decent program that is most interesting and shows that Canadians do have talent in the film industry and they cancel it!! Not a very good idea I would say. You have my Vote on saving the Show Bomb Girls. I'll keep my fingers cross... and toes.... and arms... and...

Madalyn H.

My name is Madalyn, and I'm 24 years old. First of all, I wanted to say that I'm really glad you've kept up this petition to bring back Bomb Girls. Not many would fight for a tv show for this long, but I certainly agree in that--as many of us do--it deserves a second chance! What I loved about Bomb Girls was that it was so different from anything else on Canadian tv: it's not often you can find a show that highlight's a period in Canada's WWII history (outside of a documentary), where women's roles made a significant impact. We have a tendency to overlook what was happening in Canadian society while war was raging around the world, and it shows an appreciation for the women who worked under dangerous circumstances in munitions factories. Along with the beautiful 1940s' costumes and set designs, another thing I loved was the complex story lines; the characters, all portrayed brilliantly by its actors/actresses, came from different walks of life, and they were fascinating to get to know. I enjoyed watching this show, and was very disappointed when it got cancelled. This show has so much more potential, and deserves better. I really hope that Bomb Girls can return for another few seasons. Thanks for keeping the fight going!

I stumbled across Bomb Girls by accident. I have been sent by my employee to work in the UK temporarily and of course, I had to discover wonders of mythic Netflix - fruits forbidden to me in my homeland. And after relatively short period of time the service recommended me this unknown show. Oh goodness, I knew this will be right my alley the moment I read the description. And it was. I have been longing for well-written female characters and while last years were very fertile, there is never enough of these. Bomb Girls are full of them. At first I took a liking to tomboyish Betty and eventually fell for all girls. They all behave like adults, act different and all of them try their best to be good at their jobs. They are not perfect but they are able to elbow their way through life and bond with their female co-workers instead of be all catfighty. Many of them are actually like my friends or colleagues. You could almost hear me purring. My favorite still remains Betty. I am a gay woman in my late twenties and the pre-modern era always scared me for its strong restrictions towards women and especially queer people. I always viewed a war as a mixed blessing due to social and technological advances it made possible yet it was still hard to live as a person surpassing social expectations. A lot of works, be it literature or cinematography, telling stories from that era about such persons focus on tragic nature. That's the reason I try to stay away from them. I had my fair share of them in my adolescence and after certain amount, they began to be just downers. I don't seek WW2 shows or movies because they are almost always about front lines or Hitler's suite and never about other aspects of that period of our history. Bomb Girls reminded me of books written by Austrian writer Johannes Mario Simmel. He wrote about human fates during WW2 that were played out in cities or small villages and were all about non-soldiers. They were dramas and you could always expect something bad to happen (not necessary related to war-ignited incidents), though. I like that Adrienne Mitchell and Michael

MacLennan created the show that tried to be unique. It's about WW2, about civilians, about women and it can be lighthearted and funny. And one of main characters is lesbian that is brave, tender-hearted and doesn't want to end her life with a man or kill herself. Just wow. I find even more fascinating that other characters are forward-thinking and when a word gets out, they are supportive. In my life, I had met or been a part of groups of women that showed that cohesion and I missed it so much in TV. For example, Lorna acts in kind of old-fashion way yet as episodes go, she displays very clearly where she stands and I as a viewer couldn't keep my admiration for her away. Gladys is another fascinating character. I like how she cut into the middle-class sphere and while she offers audience a peek, she manages to balance between being refined and raw need to work manually to change the situation. When I was watching these carefree parties, I couldn't help thinking how bizzare it is. Cities were burning in Europe and on American continent the biggest wound was one attack at Pearl Harbor. Vera was seriously surprising. I expected her to be a sad reminder of how hard a life of mutilated woman can be. Her arc is almost a love letter to someone who is able to pull together and value what they have. And Kate. My another mistake in judgement. I thought she will cause these tense situations and make Betty suffer either by condemning her or playing a naive object of live forever. Her transition from a pack of full of shame and uncertainty into an individual who can stand on her own and keep questioning a realities of life for right reasons was beautiful. The settings, storylines and most importantly characters are fabulous and I would love to see more of these. When I discovered that the show was cancelled because I even started watching it, it broke my heart. Luckily, creators are working on movie and I can't wait to see it. At the time of its release date, I will be back in my country and my access will be limited again. Never mind, clicking on movie pre-order button on Amazon or wheresoever is sure thing. If this is going to be read by anyone having any decision powers, please consider adding subtitles. I would say my English is solid. I listen to podcast and watch some shows without subtitles however sometimes it can be a challenge to understand and it's frustrating to miss something, especially if it's a line in the show that matters. I am really grateful this series exist and I would like to thank everyone who made it happen. It is one of my favorites now and I look forward to discover how Betty, Lorna, Gladys, Kate, Vera and others are doing.

Hello from a dedicated Canadian Bomb Girls fan! I have to begin by saying how much I love this television show. Its so inspiring watching something that I can relate to. By saying I relate, I mean it not by the subject itself but by the style of the women in this show. I myself am completely obsessed with the 40's and 50's - everything from how I style my hair, to the clothes I wear, music I listen to, etc. It is so nice seeing a show in an era correct manner. I was completely blown away when I saw it for the first time and my first thought was 'This must be an old time show', but when I recognized Meg Tilly I knew it was recent - and then when I discovered it was Canadian I was so excited to see something that was bang on with the subject and clothing (next to the amazing clothing and setting as Murdoch Mysteries). I strongly applaud the people who came up with the idea of this show, as it gets rather boring watching shows that are modern day...most of the shows I watch are old sitcoms from the 1950's so it was nice to finally be dedicated to a show that was so old fashioned! I am devastated that Bomb Girls has been cancelled as I do miss it! I will have to find a place that sells it so I can own such a marvellous television show! Thank you for the, I will go ahead and classify it as a organization type group, for the 'Save Bomb Girls' ... This is truly perfect!

Muff-Anne Y.

I'm so excited that Bomb Girls Season 2 is here, on TV, for Xmas! Please save our Bomb Girls :)

Millie T.

Love you bomb girls..can't wait for the two hr special .

Kris G.

I really hope they bring back Bomb Girls. My Grandmother worked in a Boeing factory back in WWII and she would likely love this show except for the fact that she has dementia now. Another thing that struck a chord with me is that my great-auntie Betty (yes, that was her name and she originally hailed from Manitoba) was a lesbian who lived with the love of her life. I didn't realize until I was in my 20's that she was lesbian and it never struck me as odd that she lived with another woman. It was just the way it was. Seeing Betty on the show made me realize that my aunt must have had a hell of a time growing up when she did and I am truly amazed at the fortitude she must have had to deal with all the crap that women had to go through in addition to the persecution that LGBT people have to deal with on a regular basis. A truly amazing show with such colourful characters would be sorely missed.

Steph F.

I love this show so much and was so sad once I had seen all of the episodes on Netflix, only to realize it was cancelled?! Unacceptable.

Joyce B.

Great and rare woman-oriented show with a message and great historical backdrop. If it were on network TV it would be winning awards,

Haley B.

I love this show! It is extremely well written, and I feel invested in the characters. I would hate to not ever know what happens to them!

Mike R.

Just finished season 2 on netflix. Lots of loose ends to wrap up. Hope it can be done in 2 hr movie. Better if season 3 did it. Love this show.

Ingi P.

This show is epic. I just discovered it last week and I'm finishing up now. The characters are so diverse and fun and it's so inspiring. I love knowing that at a time when women weren't viewed as they are today, that women were doing awesome things. Im getting my housemates and friends into it, I love it!!! Make it happen, Bomb Girls season 3 has to be real!!!

Muff-Anne Y.

Please Save Bomb Girls, it's the best Canadian TV to hit our airways in a long time:) Please Save Bomb Girls!

May C.

I love this show, my grandmother worked in the factories during war, she also played on one of the first female softball teams, I love the way this show makes history fun again, my youngest daughter never learned about bomb girls or anything women did during wartime and she's a high school senior

Pamela M.

I came to Bomb Girls via netflix. I was fascinated by the program and how well it was acted. The show was a history lesson. I looked up the how the workforce changed significantly after WWII, because many women did not return to being just housewives and many companies took advantage by paying females less than men. When i found out my job was paying "girls" less than men doing the same work I asked a supervisor why and was told that the "MEN" had families to support. Wow! I guessed my 3 children and myself did' nt count as a family in 1994. Shows like Bomb Girl that are not only well acted and directed but they are what I think of as social media that can wake up a generation to the past, present and future. Please make more BombGirls whether movies or miniseries. I am starving for more!

Margaret C.

Good Luck with your campaign. I have watched both series on ITV3 and thoroughly enjoyed them. I was looking forward to a third series, and am so disappointed to hear that the show has been cancelled. I now look forward to the movie, but it won't be the same!

Monica B.

Please, please, Please continue this great show. What a wonderful testament to the gals that kept the country going during WWII. It brings a fading history to light for the young women of today to see what our Grandmothers and Great Grand Mothers fought for both for the war and for women's place in the work place... Standing up and finding their voices while being marginalized for their brave efforts. It's a story that needs to be told and retold. In a day and age where most shows are about celebrities and fantasy creatures with super powers or violent predators, Bomb Girls tells the true story of True heroism and the struggle to thrive during the largest war ever fought. Don't take Bomb Girls away.

Jessica K.

Was searching online today to see season three would e starting and I was shocked to see that the show isn't returning. NOOOO! Why? It's a fantastic show with a solid cast an story line. Best Canadian series I have seen on years. I'm so hoping this online campaign works and Global will continue produce this great television show. Save bomb girls!!

Luis

Ran across it on Netflix, and really enjoyed it all. Thought the writing in Season Two took it a step up, looking forward to seeing the movie, although would love for another season or 4! Save the show!

Sandra B.

I live in England and this show is superb so much more to tell about characters lives please let's have series 3

Samantha B.

Lorraine D.

I hope it will be seen in the US too or go to Netflix where I have been watching this darling program. LOVE THIS SHOW!!!

Gord K.

ey Bomb Girls, it was a long, long war! Two years and a movie can't possibly cover the girls and their adventures. We want the series back too!

Jennifer N.

I'm so sorry to see this show go. I know a real life Bomb Girl - she infact made bombs for our soldiers during the war. It was such a wonderful way for her and I to bond. I will sincerely miss it!

Kathy R.

Wish the series would come back! They take a good show off the air and leave crappy ones on.

Nan B.

Loved this show...don't understand why it got cancelled. Bummer!

Kim L.

Really looking forward to the movie, but still really disappointed that the entire show was cancelled. So much material to cover still...its a shame.

Lisa C.

A number of my friends had never heard of Bomb Girls until I mentioned it to them and then they got into it via Global TV website. Unfortunately I don't think it was as well advertised as it could have been. Also, it does seem like society as a whole is unfortunately leaning more towards watching less intelligent television which is incredibly frustrating for those of us who aren't fans of shows

Honey B.	It's unlikely that this show would ever pull in as many fans as a show like Honey Boo Boo though. People like to watch other people embarrass themselves on national tv apparently. They can focus on "at least our family isn't as embarrassing as that family."
Rachel B.	Gutted its canceled I enjoy the show will movie be here in uk?
Megan M.	Stupid for cancelling this show shame in global
Melissa H.	wish they would of never cancel this show.. too bad.. but can't wait for the movie.. then maybe enough people will watch it.. bring it back! maybe Ctv can pick it up..let's hope
Cheryl M.	loved, loved that show...very disappointed that it was cancelled...
Judy S.	Another disappointed fan.....there is so much c on TV but this show is cancelled....I just don't understand! Looking forward to the TV movie but still not the same as weekly episodes.
Jane B.	will miss this show a lot. Really like Meg Tilly's acting.
John S.	I wish some other network would have picked this up. The sad fact is, it seems most Canadians would rather watch American sitcoms and reality TV crap than learn about a wonderful piece of our heritage written, acted and produced beautifully. CBC, where ARE you?

Britnie C.	I'm so sad the show ended but I'm excited for the movie!
Ginevre S.	I'm glad the movie really happened, and so quickly. Can't wait to watch it!
Sandy D.	Great characters, great plots, just great overall. Looking forward to the movie but so sad that show was cancelled.
Sue H.	So excited!would only bemore excitedif it were still a show!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Carol A.	Shelley, my daughter and I couldn't get enough of this show. Why was it ever cancelled in the first place???
Deg T.	Bomb Girls was an excellent idea, with great actress and beautiful realisation, its really sad to cut this fantastic tv serie ...
Kath J.	wait for the film's, just wish the series would be continued. Am buying series 1 and 2 for my mum to watch as she has not seen them yet x
Diane R.	Adored bomb girls.
Deb S.	MORE..MORE..We want more Bomb Girls!
Candice T.	It was an amazing show. It's such a disappointment that the show has been cancelled. It could have gone so far.
Carolyn M.	Love Bomb Girls and Meg Tilly!
Sue C.	Awesome..I loved that show and didn't know they were doing a movie

Laura M.	OH NO - they cancelled the series - that is just horrible. I loved this series. It was the best one on TV - Loved Loved Loved it..such an amazing historical representation of WWII and the women that were so essential to the war movement. Why is it if there is a series about how much women contributed to war it's cancelled??
Rachel S.	So excited for this movie. I can't wait to see it.
Lorraine H.	cAN'T WAIT!!!
Kimberly N.	Thanks for creating such a beautiful story - with so many strong, human, and very relatable female characters. So excited for the movie! A wonderful series, it's an absolute shame it was cancelled by Global. Please offer the movie on iTunes, so that we can buy it after it airs on television!
Michelle O.	So excited just completing season 2 . Hope it will be aired in Ireland or the UK
Amy S.	My 22year old daughter and I started watching this fall on Netflix here in Dallas, Texas. She is not a viewer of TV, but LOVES this series. We are so excited about the movie!
Laura C.	Can hardly wait to see the movie, have been a fan from day one.
Ginny C.	I was enjoying the TV series and then it was gone ...
Nancy P.	I can't wait to see the movie too!

Derek N.	I wish it played in U.S cause I can't find it in Florida
Jean M.	Can't wait to see the movie....
Patti C.	When will the movie be on TV??
Alicia G.	SAVE BOMB GIRLS!!!!
Heather W.	Wow! It's too bad this show was so short-lived. Great story line, plot and characters. And it's Canadian!
Sarah P.	Please bring back bomb girls! Me and my mom loved watching this show together and are absolutely devastated that it's not on anymore. Now me and my mom watch reruns of bomb girls on DVD and tv and drown our sorrows in ice cream and cheesecake. Please STOP the insanity and bring back Bomb Girls!
Binnie D.	I'm a fan x10 of the TV series bomb girls. Just watched the entire two seasons...in two days...was completely addicted to it. So beautifully done, such tremendous characters, I love them and the story. Accurate costuming, simply wonderful!!! I'm a child of the 50's but my entire family (father,uncles,aunts) in one way or another were active in ww2. I love this series..and was so sad to see how season 2 ended...with no real closure...disheartening! I wanted more and my heart fell when i realized it had been cancelled!!! Living to see the 2 hour TV movie, please let me know how I can register/join/get updates, on any news at all.

Tracy W.

Please save bomb Girls. This is a wonderful show. Why do TV executives keep cancelling great shows. I live in the United States and love this show. We the viewers are sick of reality TV, but keep watching because nothing else is on. I have fallen in love with this Canadian show along with another Canadian show Lost Girl. Keep the show on and let other people discover good Canadian programming.

Judy C.

Please save Bomb Girls. Great show. So tired of horrid reality shows! It needs better marketing! I kept telling friends and family about the show, and once they watched it - were hooked. But no one - no one!! knew about it. Really needs to get their voice out there.

Paul K. G.

In this era of multiple, useless and boring TV shows Bomb Girls shines like a diamond in a coal pile. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE, etc. put this wonderful show back on the air in 2014!! Thank you.

Laurie B.

Just found Bomb Girls on Netflix and was excited to find that it is a fairly recent series. And then, the bomb dropped. Cancelled. Really? Just like 'Homefront' here in the States. Looking forward to the movie but would love it if they would revive the series!!

Lynne P.

Terrific cast, unique plot lines, right on target for the times. So little had changed in industry when I went to work in my first job in a paper mill in 1965 I instantly connected with the way these ladies were treated by their male co-workers. I wondered how long it would last when the story lines took a hard look at issues like abortion, sexual discrimination, glbt issues and jingoism. Not topics that most Canadians are willing to examine. Can't say many USA citizens are any better looking at these issues either. Shoot we were really just getting to know the girls and the guys. They are a very talented cast and it is a shame this series is ending far too soon.

Irene G.

It is amazing to me that a show has arrived with great story lines, filled with encouragement and patriotism and perseverance and of course the movie industry sees no need for such values.

Cheri W.

There is much information regarding the war effort from the military stand point but not nearly enough from the view on the home front. I have watched this important program with my family. There is so much taken for granted today; the freedom, the social climate, the political climate, how things have changed. Please continue this program and don't allow it to fall along the wayside as so many others have in the past.

bag722

All the good shows get cancelled. Keep making this show.

Kelsey J.

This is the ONE show I've found to be truly empowering to women. Characters are pretty, but not overly sexualized; they maintain a healthy weight, and are not stick-thin. The vast majority of shows these days are lacking confident and independent female roles. We need to encourage more series like this one, and we can start by bringing BG back.

Cathy B.

As an American, I know very little about Canada's part in WWII. I have learned a lot from the show, as well as enjoying the story. Please let us have more!

BrindleCat

I discovered Bomb Girls on Netflix a few days ago (I live in Washington state) and am absolutely in love with the series. It is so much better than anything produced for US television. I watched all 18 episodes in just a few days, and now feel absolutely bereft to learn that it was cancelled. I hope this campaign is successful in getting another network to pick the show up. There are so many stories to continue! It's the best thing I've seen in ages. It's better than Downton Abbey.

Linda T.

I am so saddened that Bomb Girls will only be resolved with a final 2 hour movie. At least it's something, right? I just found out this sad fact, as I am watching my recorded episodes from season two right now. What I adore about this series is the fact that my parents were the age of these characters during WWII and this series allows me a glimpse into the social and political thought processes of the time. They are long deceased, now, but this series afforded me the opportunity to experience life as they knew it: gas and food rations, women and their roles in society, forbidden loves and lusts, etc.... Thank you all for making this series, from the skilled set people to the writers/creators to the actors. No matter how old I get I will always miss my parents; watching Bomb Girls allows me to remember them as young and beautiful.

Madge S.

One of the best shows I have seen in a long time! Couldn't believe it when I heard there would not be a third season and beyond. A 2 hr. movie is certainly unacceptable! Please save this show.

Karen D.

I'm so gonna miss this show!

Jennifer M.

One of the smartest best shows ever!

Richard H.

My wife and I are looking forward to seeing the movie asap! Love Meg and all the girls.

Richard H.

When and where is the movie going to be shown? Anyone know?

Irene R.	Wonderful. I love the era of my mother who was a Rosie the Riviter.
Elizabeth A.	Such a shame that quality programming such as Bomb Girls gets canceled and garbage like reality TV last for eternity. Go figure!
Sandy H.	Yes, Bomb Girls gets cancelled but something stupid like Honey Boo Boo goes on and on. The dumbing down of North America... sigh.
Denise O.	I really like this show
David F.	Looking forward to this! But really sucks we are not getting another season. Either way..at least we are getting something to round out this fantastic show!
Katie M.	What it was canceled aww that was a great series
Glorianne G.	Meg Tilly is superb on Bomb Girls. So looking forward to the movie. Let's bring it back!
Laura H.	I miss my Bomb Girls
Joyce J.	Oh my goodness...this makes me want to cry. Goodbye Bomb Girls.
Debbie R.	Im excited but sooo sad...
Chastity O.	bring back the show please omg im dont want it to be done

Andy O.	Thanks, eh! Hope the show comes back, or at least another movie. In the meantime, we're all looking forward to the first movie. Cheers!
Christine D.	What???? no new seaso? DAMN!!!!
Jessica G.	When will it be in New Zealand?
Michael S.	Well I will admit it was a watchable series but the research could have been a lot better and more historically factual. Still I look forward to the film.
Elisa G.	Love this series! I am looking forward to the movie, but I prefer to see the series continue. Bomb Girls is an amazing TV series featuring something uncommon: camaraderie among women! Something very rare in real life and in today's television shows. This show needs to be picked up by film company that can embrace it and take it to another level of amazing. I love the history aspect and enjoy the work of the talented actors in this show!
Ceyda Y.	I can't wait for the movie! wish the series was continuing though
Donna W.	Can hardly wait to see the movie!
Karen K.	I'm eager to view this movie. When will it be shown? I want to see more of Meg Tilly and Jodie Balfour - great actresses!

Bella G.

Meg Tilly was just amazing on this show and I have to say it again Bomb Girls was an awesome show, best show on tv and these days there just so few shows worth watching at least here in US, is such a shame it was cut short, I will for sure watch it again as well as the movie, Thanks Bomb Girls a great show.. ♥♥♥

Majalisa D.

I just discovered the show after hearing about it from my mom(who is across the US) and my sister. All three of us got so absorbed in the show, only I just found it this last weekend and have managed to see both seasons in 2 days. Please, please bring it back!

Carla G.

Denise E.

Evy T.

Carolina A.	Really? Ugh i love the series bring it back!

Linda M.	Can't believe they cancelled this great series....typical, get rid of something good
J. J. Ann Y.	Bring the series back... I want my Bomb Girls!!
Shirley R.	please bring the series back
Ilene J.	I can't wait for movie! I want my Bomb girls to come back to television. My Mother worked on a bomb line in Nebraska and it was good to talk to her about her experiences and how it compared to things in the show.
Dianne H.	Maybe it will be picked up by a different network.... We can hope
Diana P.	Finally taping, yes!!!! Love this show, and being on this set would be so much fun!
Linda W.	I'm happy..a little, I wish it would come back on TV.

Jean M.	We want it on again...can you hear us?
Jaëla B.	Guys they don't have magical powers, their show got cancelled, they can't bring it back just like that. Even Firefly with all the fanpower they hadn't couldn't bring back the show. Networks are assholes. Be happy we're getting a movie! I sure as hell am excited to see these faces again!
Marlene H.	Loved the TV Series don't know why this great show was even cancelled!!!
Rhiannon C.	When can we expect the movie in the States? It's such a shame the show was cancelled. It was wonderful.
Mary W.	i really liked this show....please bring it back!!!!!!!!!!!!
Christine P.	Great show- one of my favorites!!!
Wendy G.	Hoping for movie #1, #2 and so onnnnnnnn....it's the best series ever made in my eyes
Debbie C.	Please bring back "Bomb Girls", it's based on real life. It was so refreshing to see a show with some actual Canadian history. It was nice looking forward to each and every new episode. It doesn't make sense, stopping a show with such high ratings:(

Jennifer S. I cannot believe they cancelled this show. It was great. I just came on this page to see when it was going to start again. I have so many people watching it. Wow I hope someone else brings it back. All the shows on TV are for the 'younger' set. For once they had a show the some of us older tv fans to like and appreciate and they cancel it. I am really disappointed. This is better than some of the other shows they have on Reelz channel.

Cathy L. Screw a 2 hour movie, bring the series back!!!!

Barbara P. WOW, I have been waiting for this series to start up again, I hope that it will. Best series on TV, it can't be gone

Julie Z. i dont know why they cancelled this.. but looking forward to the movie

Tasha S. I cant believe they cancelled this show.

Dani B. Why don't thank make the series for Netflix if they can't get a new station to pick it up? I would much rather the series continue than a movie!!! They do it with Orange is the New Black, Mako Mermaids, Hemlock Grove etc This was SUCH a great show!!!

Chris M. Loved the show! Miss it!

Lyn S. Global doesn't deserve to air this after cancelling the series. There is more professionalism in Meg Tilley then there ever will be in Global!

Carrie J. I wish they would just bring back the series

Caryn S.	Uuggghhh this is bittersweet I am still super pissed it got canceled!
Bridget E.	I didn't even know it was cancelled! ;_ ; I loved those bomb-building beauties! Did not miss an episode.
Valerie P.	I wanted a few more seasons!!!
Elaine F.	I hope it eventually gets aired in the U.S.
Maureen O.	I always like Mel Tilly's comedy, but, her drama is stellar
Judi W.	I loved this show! Will take what I can get though I am still disappointed it was cancelled.
David W.	Okay, here's my take; Bomb Girl fans can pass the word and get a lot of folks on board to bombard (Pun intended) different media interests in the series and when the film is released, do the same in spades. If the film gets raves and a lot of views, it's a message to someone that there's interest (...and money.) in keeping the show going.
Natalie M.	wish that netflix would pick it up....love this show....
Shelley S.	Well piss me off! I will watch the TV movie but was huge fan of the show!!
Jennifer B.	When does the tv movie come out I loved that show
Michele D.	hat was such a quality show! Loved the characters and storylines!

Terri B.	Please bring Bomb Girls back. Such a fantastic Canadian program
Jamie A.	Lovely show, really needs to come back.
Kristina A.	Such a wonderful show! I do not understand why they are not doing another season. It goes great rating and reviews. Why was it canceled?????
Susan W.	Miss this show so much!
Susan S.	Sure hope some other network picks up this great show.
Margaret B.	Meg Tilly is great, but a movie doesn't replace the show, not at all!
Evy T.	Great show it tells a nice story in difficult times, I rather have the series than the movie
Patti M.	WHY did this show have to end anyway?
Ramona H.	Loved this show...couldn't even pick a fav actress - they were ALL so good!
Greta C.	Meg Tilly is a really great actress. Loved her in Leaving Normal. Bombs girls was a AWSOME series I thought. Still can't understand why it was canceled.
Patricia M.	If they would put on more of these type shows and less reality..tv The world would be a better place..
Mae G.	OH NOW ,thats why i can,t find it why was it cancelled

Rose M. My question is answered. I could not find it either. How could they cancel it?? One of the best shows on TV!!

Cathy L. Unbelievable how all the crap shows can run for 20 years but the good shows are cancelled after a couple season's I wonder who the moron was that decided to cancel Bomb Girls. Maybe they should find another career!

Andrea M. Love it...keep the updates coming! Still holding out for hope that Bomb Girls will be renewed for more seasons! C'mon it's the best show, great story and great actors!

Joel M. Glad they decided to tie up all the loose ends (or plot lines) in a movie.

Kayla S. If you guys need extras, I will totally just drop everything in my life and make a 5-6 hr trip to Toronto. xD

Jo A. Wish it was the series that was shooting guess we'll have to wait and see. Bomb Girls was like my favorite show

Peggy S. Really happy that they at least are doing a movie! Would rather have the series back, but will be happy with the movie!

Colleen R. Can't wait but I still want the show back! Doesn't make sense that they cancelled an award nominated show.

Barb S.

It's too bad they couldn't film in one of the original communities the war involved. I feel lucky to be living in a war time home in Ajax, ON. I loved The Bomb Girls series and was saddened to hear of the cancellation. Nothing could turn back time like the producers of the the show

Andrea M.

I love the return of Bomb Girls, but we want the return of the FULL TV series! Make it happen! This amazing story deserves to be told for more seasons!

Gail V.

I can't believe they cancelled this show, I love it they need more of this kind of tv then reality shows and crime shows with killings and ppl who need to show off their families. This show has history lessons absolutely disgraceful...for once we have a really good and well made Canadian series and those idiots go and cancel it. Well bloody done !!!!

Beth W.

Absolutely fell in love with this show

Jennifer B.

My daughter (7yrs old) and I love watching this show together! It is a great history lesson for her as well as being able to see the woman's stuggles and how far we have come today.

Nancy G.

some one in Canada should set up a petiton to keep it going

Renee K.	As far as the movie goes, I'll take what we can get. A third, fourth, fifth, ect. season would be much better. Bomb Girls has such a big fan base and has won several awards, so I am not sure why it was cancelled. Cancelling it was a bad decision.
Stephanie C.	Bring it back is all I have to say, they had a very good thing keep your " customers " happy!!!
Tobiah R.	I still can't get over that it was cancelled. Well, at least we're getting something. Bomb Girls!
Nicola H.	cant wait for movie so love bomb girls
Tara F.	I'm glad there will be a movie, hopefully tying up loose ends. Shame on Global and Shaw for cancelling.
Dawn A.	Bring back the series! But I will love a movie! Will it be on TV in the U.S?
Laura C.	I am a dedicated watcher. Will love the Movie too, I'm sure.
Jane V.	Can we get a Bomb Girls broadway show?
Kimber M.	Please bring this back! This is one of my favoret shows.
Rhoda S.	Miss this show like crazy!
Karman B.	I LOVE LOVE LOVE THIS SHOW. I didn't realize that it was canceled? My heart is broken. But tv movie? Whew.
Allison B.	Cancelled????

Hanna J.	At least we get closure
Elena G.	Need Bomb Girls back on tv!!!
Chris M.	They're finally back, but I'd like the show back, please!
Bijou V.	im so glad they will make the movie! i never thought they would actually do it!
Emily R.	We need more seasons not a TV movie. It will never do the characters justice!
Jennifer J.	I apologize to everyone here. If I love a television show, it gets cancelled. My bad.
Kellie P.	Next best thing to doing more seasons, which they clearly are not (sadly).
Shirley R.	still want the show to continue
Shirley F.	2,3 or 5 more movies!!!! Can't believe they cancelled this...one of my favorite shows and CANADIAN!
Ashley M.	I love this show!!!!!!!!!! I hope we can help save it. I haven't enjoyed a show this much in a long time.
Avis F.	I have been watching Bomb Girls on Netflix. I am so disappointed to have reached the end in one setting. This show is one of the best I have seen. As usual, networks don't know quality when they see it.

Nadine S.

I just went online to try to get some info on when to look for the next season. I am floored! No new season. So how are we supposed to know where and when to find the TV movie? The only small pittance remaining to us.

Niamh Ní C.

To whom it may concern, I am a huge fan of the show Bomb Girls, and would love to see a 3rd and subsequent series being produced. There are few series that portray such strong female characters and develop them to such a degree, and it would be a huge shame to just wrap this up in a 2 hour film.

Jasmine S.

The show is well-written and the characters are very relatable. In a Jersey Shore world, a show about empowered women who don't curse or bare it all is a blessing for the Y and Z generations. They need role models who don't speak in initializations and glorify drugs and alcoholism. Historically girls need to know the kinds of oppression we have overcome and how that oppression was not so long ago. The Feminine Mystique still somewhat plagues women to this day. The victories of our gender are easily lost with recent kitchen and sandwich jokes that have scattered the internet. Speaking selfishly, I must say, this show is a delight. I look forward to the direction each character takes, which is a rare feat in recent television. I plead, beg, and implore producers not to give up on Bomb Girls. Much quality shows have been lost and what the masses have since consumed are dumbed down and easy to digest, for the average viewer this is ideal. But if we keep quality shows like Bomb Girls on air, we force the masses to smarten up to quality television. A smart online presence will get Bomb Girls a cult-like following and generate discussion, generate buzz, and it'll take off. We have to keep it on air to get the buzz going though! Sincerely and humbly, Jasmine S. Guam resident #SaveBombGirls advocate P.S. It would be very cool to incorporate a Guam mention into season 3. The near 300K people who live hear love that stuff.

Jen L.

Bomb Girls was the first show in a long time to catch my attention and really take hold of it. After falling in love with the show and the strong female roles instantly, mainly Gladys's, I couldn't wait to watch the next episode, and then the next and then... I ended up watching both seasons in one weekend, almost in one sitting, only left to sadness and disappointment that it was the end of my favorite show; Literally. Now I am left only continue on to watch half measured shows with half the imagination, depth and character of the Bomb Girls series. My hope is that one day soon, I will be able to see once more, all of the strong lovely ladies together again on screen, to watch their lives and adventures unfold before me. That I may once again, enjoy a T.V. show as much as I did as "Bomb Girls".

Brenna C.

Thank you for trying to bring back Bomb Girls. This show was the highlight of my week. I'm so sick of reality tv shows, game shows and sports. Bomb Girls had a great story line and first class actors.

Patrick V.

Save Bomb Girls, I will not take time here to say how amazing the show is, that's why I am here.

First, I think you need more advertising about it. I found it by accident and am torn between watching it all at once and savoring it to make this amazing program last. If a show like "Orange is the new black" and "House Of Cards" have their amazing success on Netflix, why not Bomb Girls? Great story lines, great cast, amazing time price that can have so many plots. Also, an area I have never seen explored means an open book. Keep pushing and keep working to get the program restarted.

Dariana R.

I found out about the show through Netflix. I could say I've never seen a show this different. I was truly disappointed finding out that this show wouldn't go on for long during the time I was watching it. Only 18 episodes. I need more please save bomb girls!

Bethany A.

Continue bomb girls. I simply want more Bomb Girl stories!

JRBagby23

I loved it. I just discovered Bomb Girls, via Netflix, and couldn't stop watching! What a marvelous program. I am soooo disappointed to learn that there will be no Season 3! I hope producers will change their minds. I look forward to the movie, but would love to have a season 3, 4, 5, 6 and so on to look forward to!

Sherry S.

SAVE THE BOMB GIRLS

Bobbie D.

BRING the BOMB GIRLS BACK! For your consideration, I'm in withdrawal !!! A show with such quality should not be taken off the air ! Plz ! What a great show that is. I guess CA is not different from the US... when there is a great show, it disappears.

Janis R.

What a shame this show was cancelled. The show ended without closing up loose ends. I feel that fans were left in the air. Please bring back Bomb Girls. It is great entertainment.

Lindsey

Why is it that Canadian networks so often choose to keep all of their “look alike programs” that so closely mirror shows in the U.S. but when they finally have a truly original production they cancel it after such a short time. Canadian networks need to realize that in order to really become a big boom they need to fill their stations with truly original programs especially with such a large population of viewers living in areas that share both us and Canadian networks. Why would I choose to watch shark tank Canada (or many other like it) when I could just turn the channel and watch the original, much higher budget, u.s. version. Canadians need to be proud of their original works of art and keep them on air as long as possible. This show is a huge hit online and it would only be a great mistake not to return it to the air.

RoAnnon

Hello, Jon here, from Texas. Glad to see I'm not the only guy on the site... I don't watch a lot of TV any more, but when I do the show always seems to get cancelled soon after. I'm holding out hope for a few other shows I'm currently watching on netflix that appear to still be in production. There're too many storylines in Bomb Girls for them to cancel now.

akgirl04

Please continue this show, k love it!

Debbie R.

really miss it

Judy C.

the show has been cancelled? I was so looking forward to a new season. I'm terribly disappointed. It was a wonderful "clean" series..I'll truly miss it. I'll definitely watch the movie.

Kathleen W.

Loved this show

John P.

Yes ! This was a pretty good show even though we had to sit through Rosie "hypocrite" O'Donnell for an episode. They really should stretch it out to 1944, 1945 and Victory.

Bob C.

Well, I suppose it's better than nothing, but I do miss the TV series. It was brilliant, accurate and CANADIAN.

Carol M.

Good I like this show glad its coming back.

Maria O.

BRING BACK BOMB GIRLS! Cancelling this show was a dumb move. Shop for another network. I'm sure you can find and American TV network willing to pick it up. Reelz, Lifetime, Oprah's Oxygen network. Are you guys even trying???

Gord K.

A favourite TV show and we want it back! A movie will not do the characters the justice in building their lives over the war years. Just give us more 'Bomb Girls'!

Lorraine H.

Yes Yes Yes....love those "Bomb Girls"

Antoinette B.

Why was this show cancelled in the first place? There is still too much to cover and a movie does not cut the mustard. Disappointed that a quality show is axed while there is so much other waste on t.v.

Diane T.

Loved this show! Please bring it back for another season!

Kim L.

Im looking forward to the movie but still irritated with the tv execs decision to cancel! nothing of this production calibre has been offered to replace Bomb Girls so what is the big problem with putting it back in production...seriously dumb decision.

Sue W.

Yeah! I liked that show.

Nan D.

I still don't understand how they could have cancelled this series! But I am glad the movie is here. That being said, perhaps they will go back to a series after this????

Jonathan H.	Cancelled? DAMN -- I loved this show!!

Elizabeth E.	sad when it was cancelled. happy for the movie though.

Stina K.	This expat Canadian will fly over from Oz to be an extra on set if required. Just say the word
Lynne D.	If they had any sense they would take advantage of the FB hype for a while and then bring it back. They would have tripled their fan base. So many people never saw it and are now intrigued by the hype.
Mary K.	Bring it back for another season!!! Best show ever!
Colleen R.	Bring the show back
Monique C.	The show needs to come back

Elizabeth P.	So bummed it's canceled! Just found out...I know I'm behind! Bring it back!!!!!!

Stephen L. I am just watching the second season in the uk. Have 2 episodes to go. I am gutted this has been cancelled. I love the era and the cast and story lines in this show. It shows u dont need violence and sex to make a good series. Despite it being critically acclaimed they still axe it. The save bomb girls website is amazing with nearly 5000 comments and vmails sent. They share some wonderful mails from people around the world who have been inspired by the show.

Lesley T. My mum worked in one of these factories when she was a young girl

Mabel A. P.	I just discovered your lovely show on Netflix and since my husband says i'm a binge watcher I couldn't help but finish it in two weeks, however I honestly would have delayed watching it so fast if I knew that there was no Season 3! I was/am so upset.... LOVE this show!
Emily H.	And why was this show not picked up for more seasons? Yes, I know tv movie. But damn, this was a great show. I miss it!

Danette B.	Then why the heck did it get cancelled????

Tuezdae J.	They cancelled it to make space for bones...
DaNielle P.	Sad to see that such a quality, award-winning program was never given the proper chance. With the huge plot points opened in the last episode, two hours does not seem adequate to wrap it up. Please renew the show!
Debbie R.	well THAT'S like pouring salt in the wound...how bittersweet.

Sherry W.	I LOVED that show ! Im done with TV!! Turnin up the radio!!!
Gertrude F.	Awesome. Then why was it cancelled?

Rachelle D.	When will season 2 be on netflix?? I love bomb girls wish there where more shows like that
Lyn S.	Global doesn't deserve the PRIVILEGE of re-airing this since they cancelled it! They prefer shows with vampires versus excellent actors and story lines.

Rhonda K.	Another one of the good tv shows leaving us and some last for years like how I met your mother
Lauren E.	We are in the uk we live it it's brilliant touching and informative why cancel it probably because it's not a hospital depressing violent show like eastenders or csi. Hope you can get it back I'm hooked. Marco is gorgeous x with all the crap on tv why would you cancel a show that teaches girls something about being strong and independent instead of dressing trashy, too much make-up. this show even shows a part of history our schools no longer teach, my 18 yr old had never heard of bomb girls till i made her watch this me.

Jan

Disappointed! I can't believe Bomb Girls was cancelled. It was so well written, the acting was great, and I loved seeing the role played by our women in World War II. It is so disappointing to lose Canadian shows like Bomb Girls and Flashpoint while so many awful Canadian shows are kept year after year.

Barbara V.

I want Bomb Girls back!

Reina K.

I'd like to be counted among the viewers who would love this show to return.
Thank you

Silena R.

save Bomb Girls!! I love this show!! hope my support helps!

Karen M.

I can't believe they want to cancel this series!! It is well written and the actors are well chosen! Please keep this series going!

Suzanne L.

So upset there will be no third season of Bomb Girls. So Canadian. We need more Canadian . Wish we could change your mind. thanks

I am an American who has traveled extensively throughout Canada, both for pleasure and business. Additionally, I know many Canadians who currently live throughout the world. My work has taken me (so far) to 65 countries (some of which do not exist anymore) and I've been extremely lucky to have such an opportunity. Certainly, it has given me a view of the world that I would not have had otherwise, especially because those clients with whom I meet are, for the most part, executives of large corporations and/or senior government officials. That said, it was only through "Bomb Girls" that I learned much more about Canadian history than I thought I knew. I came upon "Bomb Girls" by watching "Bletchley Circle" on Netflix. I was captivated by it for many reasons and researched the history of Bletchley (Britain's top secret cryptographers site) via Wikipedia and other sources. One thing led to another and I learned something that fascinated me (which you already know but I doubt relatively few Americans do): the large ethnic diversity that Canada had during the war, hence, an "issue", rightly or wrongly (from the Canadian government's viewpoint), regarding "what do do with" the numbers of both people and ethnic groups. The result were so-called "internment camps" or "concentration camps". Unfortunately, the State where I come from had one of the largest such...."prisons" (a term used by many Americans today re: such concentrations camps) in the U.S. where Japanese were interned. Prior to World War II, Canada was already familiar with how to do it, having dealt with Ukranian Canadians. "Bomb Girls" had "Marco" and his situation was not explored to the extent it could have been, however, it is not too late. If the producers of "Bomb Girls" continue with episodes/seasons, even if spaced further apart than the

This drama is excellent. The time period in which it is set is exciting. I've learned from watching what daily life may have been like for my Dad. He worked in a plant. He never told me why he didn't fight, but he was first generation German. The multiple story lines are so realistic and well written. They need to continue because the audience was left hanging in every scenario. There was no resolution to any character. I must know what happens to Betty and Kate, Lorna and Gladys. Marco reminds me so much of my father and Vera reminds me of myself. I love this show and the characters brought to life in such an authentic manner. SAVE THE BOMB GIRLS!

Jackie P.

I absolutely Love the show Bomb Girls. Please do not cancel it. Bring it back.

Anneke V.

I too was sooo disappointed to hear it was cancelled. It was an excellent show and I don't understand why it was cancelled. I'm all for bringing it back!!

Mindy H.

I am in love with this show! I am a WWII buff, and love the stories represented on this show. It's a true Canadian gem, and I am proud of it. The writing and acting is excellent. It's a great balance of historical accuracy (both war and feminism), humour, love (friendships and romance), and sadness. Please, save Bomb Girls.

Charly R.

I started watching Bomb Girls season two again. This is the season when some fans, especially some McAndrews fans, really seem to dislike Kate but love Betty. I've never understood this as I've always been a Kate fan since the very first episode of season one. Read more on deconstructing Kate Andrews at <http://tinyurl.com/o4ox82e>

My husband and I greatly enjoyed the show Bomb Girls and were very disappointed when it was not renewed. This is a great show with superb writing, great acting, and wonderful plots. There is so little good programming on TV today and this show was totally engrossing. We also enjoyed the window into the lives of women in the not too distant past and seeing what their lives were like. We have recommended this program to many people and would definitely be watching if it were to be renewed.

Stacey N.

My husband and I watched Bomb Girls with much enthusiasm and interest. It was at times comical, sentimental, well-acted, and quintessentially Canadian. It was one of the best developed, endearing, and historically fascinating programs airing in Canada while it ran. We are hugely disappointed that it was cancelled. The soundtrack was awesome, the characters intriguing and clever, and Meg Tilly was mesmerizing in her role. There are so many absolutely garbage television shows that are being given prime time spots in place of something so Canadian, so well-made and so wonderful to watch. Please return Bomb Girls to the air and continue to produce this program. One of the best moments we experienced around Bomb Girls was watching it with our niece, who was intrigued, and who was prompted to ask so many questions about women in Canada, the wars, and Canadian history in general.

Erin

Bomb Girls has been a truly inspiring show. We do not have enough period pieces that so accurately represent the struggle that women have faced. It is a needed and much loved show for ours as well as future generations who have no understanding of the struggle of war(which is timely), and the struggle to gain women's independence! Please consider continuing this highly awarded show!! America wants it!

Betty Ann

Just finished watching season one and two....a great series.....wish they would continue it...I'd watch every episode. All the actors are fantastic. Love it!

Bob-Mary C.	Will they ever bring this awesome show back on television?!! We miss it very much!!!! ~Mary
Kim C.	Love, love, love Bomb Girls!
Ariane M.	We want it back! It can't be canceled... just like this... out of the blue... no reason...can not be! #sad
Anna-Karin S.	I agree with all of the above. I want it back!!!!
Gisèle D.	It was voted one of Canada's best shows so why is it going?
Margaret K.	They like Bomb Girls and Murdoch Mysteries. Why can't we have GOOD TV unstead of the mindless canned laughter crap that Americans are forced to watch? I wonder if the NBA (National Broadcasters Assoc.) will ever catch on to the fact that some of us will turn off "crap" ?
Renee K.	I don't understand why this show was cancelled. It has a large fan base and has won many awards.
Judy L.	Does Global TV know this cause , they cancelled Canada Best TV show?
Chris M.	Someone on a previous comment said to make room for "bones." I miss Bomb Girls and wish they would bring it back. I look forward to the movie. Does anyone know when it comes out?
Ilene J.	I Love this show!!! Please bring back to U.S!

Della S.	Then bring it back. I have to wait for reruns on tnt but would love it back on. One of my favorites.
Ka V.	And yet it's cancelled! BRING THEM GALS BACK!
Ken J.	Love it this side of the pond too
Rina H.	One of my favorite shows...please bring it back!
Christina C.	Why did it get canceled?
Jane D.	What a terrible shame there is no more of this wonderful series. I have enjoyed it more than almost anything on TV and would love to see more.
Hanlon D.	I am devastated that this marvellous series has ended. Such wonderful storytelling with well rounded characters is rare on TV these days. Looking forward to the movie, BUT, Global needs their corporate head examined. This programme could have run for years, with many dimensions to be had from the diverse characters and war time aspects to be explored.
Marie B.	Please bring Bomb Girls back. It was one of my favorite shows. When I changed my DTV package I made sure I had the Reelz channel just so I could keep watching Bomb Girls. Bring it back!
Alison M.	Does anyone know when season 3 is starting?

Debbie Y.

UUUGGGHHH every time I find a show that I love watching,they cancel it. When will the networks understand that we want outstanding story lines to entertain us. This show was something I enjoyed so much , along with my mom (age 85). She lived it and enjoy remembering the moments from her youth. Please reconsider your true fan base and KEEP this show on air..

Riva

I'm very upset about it getting cancelled. What can we do!?

Phyllis

I think it is an amazing show and I am completely stunned and very sad that it has been cancelled. I sure hope there is a way we can prevent this from happening.

awnutts

I arrived late to the Bomb Girls party (only started watching less than a month ago...and I kinda caught up in about a week. Damn is this show addicting) and I hate that it may not be around much longer.

Ruby Moon

I just recently found the show, and I love it!

Candyweb

I love this show, my grandparents met in a munitions factory in England and it's part of why I love this show so much. I'm passionate about getting this show back on the air.

Impy

Silly me thought that with Bomb Girls being Canadian it would be immune to my curse but apparently this is not the case. :(I can't remember how I heard about the show originally because after I found it on Netflix last month, I've been bouncing around trying to find someone to watch with me and everyone reacts the same way: "What Girls? Wha-why huh?"

Edy

I just learned that the series had been canceled while I was surfing to find out when the next Season would start (a little behind the times). Really bummed about seeing BG's go away but looking forward to the upcoming movie. I see where the 1,000 bandana's made it - CONGRATS!

Joonbug

I will be 64 in july. love the show. so looked forward each week. grrr. I miss it so!

David

Retired US military. Huge fan of the Hollywood beauties from the Silent Era until the early '60's when Hollywood lost its way. Favorite stars include, Carole Lombard, Carole Landis, Louise Brooks, Joan Blondell (This could take a while...) Clara Bow and I'll cut this short and state the last true Hollywood beauty was the stunning Sharon Tate. Thrilled to see all the new shows with strong female lead characters/casts. Not so thrilled to know Bomb Girls has not been renewed for a third season. I have a Twitter account I don't use, stay on FB for the most part. I should finish the series tonight. Been trying to hold out the last episodes as a blew through season 1 much too quickly. A lot of questions and a lot of suppositions as to where the show should have and still could go. Totally in love with Betty and IMO, she's the strongest character in the show.

Meliasunshine

I was hooked the first episode I saw. If we are a generation of television watchers I believe we should watch something with history and depth not some reality show if girls getting drunk and acting a fool. I come from a generation if woman factory workers who were also treated like 2 nod class citizens because of their ethnicity or just because they were women. I was heartbroken when I found out this show was canceled and will help anyway I can to get it back on air or even better, become a Netflix original like Arrested Development

Do you know where I can buy the DVD of #BombGirls for my perfect Christmas ? Thanks ! #savebombgirls

Smooshh	Watching Bomb Girls with my lovely sister @millionsmilesx a perfect end to. Sunday 🍷 #savebombgirls !
dulcineahilton	Women are being misrepresented in the media nowadays.Hence, #SaveBombGirls: they represent our strong female ancestors ...
BansheeKitty	#savebombgirls. Please keep this on the air!!
aMAYzedConfused	Watching season2 of Bomb Girls. Still can't believe they've cancelled it. It's brilliant & there's nothing else like it on tv #savebombgirls
Quimby2	Save Bomb Girls have a season 3! Some of best tv on air! #savebombgirls
uk_crunch	just finished S2 in UK, can't believe we don't get to find out what happens next.. @itv3official #savebombgirls
1staidgirl	I think this shows our heritage that many Canadians knew nothing about and we have to get this show back!! #SaveBombGirls.
ElizabethBolde3	brilliant series
jci	I like this show. It's rare on film and even more so on television to see a production whose cast is primarily female and is so nakedly feminist in it's intent. The show has been very direct about the open sexism that existed and would have been on display especially in these munitions factories. No doubt it would have been very threatening to see woman doing just fine in a "man's" job.

Deathbyblonde I'm digging this show and, oh man, Betty just breaks my heart. They really kind of nailed it with that character for me.

ybrik I had really wanted to see this when I first heard the initial outlines. I like historical fictions. I don't think there has been a series in the US based on the same time period. I remember a couple shows set at the end of the war. I really like this show. All the characters are well thought out. Even characters like the husband and Archie, who usually are one note characters, come off as real people flaws and all.

Lord Kira Betty really is the heart of this show, which surprised me because she was so cold in the first episode. I felt awful for her when Kate thoroughly rejected her. Ouch. I'm ecstatic that the show has been picked up for a second season; and a 12 episode season at that!

georgiesmith I just finished watching the last episode of the season and I couldn't believe how far everything had come from that first episode. Only six episodes and they were packed with character development for everyone. I'm just stunned how much I enjoyed the show. No one was a cookie cutter - sometimes we cheered for them, sometimes we were disappointed in them, sometimes we were angry at them but I guess the point is that we always felt something. I have no idea how they're going to start with the next season but I'm already missing them on my TV.

Munchiewoman I just watched the whole season in one sitting. What can I say, I loved period pieces. Looking forward to more!

Mikita	I had three episodes of the show sitting on the dvr. I finally watched early this morning when I couldn't sleep. I devoured all three in that one sitting. Excellent show.
scarlett45	I like this show quite a bit. I am also a fan of the hair and makeup styles. Very clean and sophisticated.
possibilities	I watched the marathon. I hadn't even heard of this show two weeks ago, and now I'm hooked. Sooooo happy to see such a female-focused show, where the relationships among the women are not all about talking about the men. It passes the Bechdel test with flying colors.
nexus2012	I just discovered this show and am loving it. Parts of it remind me of a show called Homefront which had Friday Night Light's Kyle Chandler and Dharma's mum in it, along with John Slattery aka Roger Sterling.
sienna gold	Finally got to watching this. Boy I love this show.
Emily Thrace	Bad news It's cancelled Hopefully someone else will pick it up.
Turkish	So sad this is ending. The fact that they are talking about a tv movie to wrap up storylines pretty much confirms that these last episodes will end on some cliffhangers.
Canada	It sucks that this great show was cancelled. And I was so disappointed with the finale tonight. :(

Cgr	We haven't watched the final yet but I am so sorry there will be no more of this show.
Jean A.	Hands down one of THE best tv shows ever!!!! But why is there no more new ones? :(I recorded it the first time round on my pvr and have watched them over....finally seen it on Global and went WOOHOO!!! But it is just re-runs right now :(BUT i am watching them all :D Will there be new bomb girls, and when as I don't dare want to miss it!!! :D Really sad that it is ended..it has been a long time since I found a show I loved this much....but will be watching for the movie.... :)
Rosemary J.	Enjoy the strong female characters and from a Canadian perspective as well
Slavica	I love history, especially that era. the way the ladies dressed and the music. the show is awesome!!!!!!
Madeline S.	Bomb Girls is an awesome show! Please don't cancel it!!
AdrieNne B.	I only just found this series, and it is AMAZING!!! It would be a shame for it to end!
Nathalie F.	Historical
Anthony F.	Great show at a time when great shows are in demand
Michael H.	History that bears remembering and understanding. Well written and amazingly acted. Better than 90% of our other choices in the US.

Johanne L.	Very good, at least need closure
Denis C.	It is important to keep such an excellent television program like Bomb Girls on the air. It is a fine example of how great Canadian shows can be. Well scripted, fantastic cast, and showcases how life was during this pivotal period in recent history.
Richard V.	The show is awesome, and there is a lot left there to show.
Nora B.	Please bring the show back
Chantelle R.	As a woman in trades, I both relate to and respect these fictional vixens and their fruitful woes.
Somer V.	This show is exceptional. Way better than all the reality TV and other stuff on TV. Please bring 'Bomb Girls' back!
Paige B.	ITS GREAT JUST BRING IT BACK
John L.	It provides a fascinating window onto the war effort made by our Canadian friends.
Lana G.	Bomb Girls has given me the confidence to be who I really am. Without it I would never have (accidentally but truthfully) come out as a lesbian and I would not be living the life I am today!
Ruth H.	This show has been fantastic don't deprive us of further episodes great shows are hard to find and this is up there with the best of them.

charlene e.

This show is about the power of women and who that power was thwarted. Things that aim to educate women and empower women are often underfunded and supported. It's time to make the outreach as important as the ratings.

Zuzana S.

It is my favourite serial - I didn't even imagine how hard it was in these times... And I can appreciate my life, work and everything I have.

Gabriella M.

this show is one of the most interesting shows out there and does not deserve to be cancelled forever.

JC F.

I understand a BG movie is in the works now, but renewing it as series would really be better. Just saw on Netflix: great show!

Melissa L.

I didn't grow up in this era, but can highly appreciate the contributions women across the nation forewent to protect and serve our country. My grandmother worked in a military factor sewing parachutes for the men in war, may she rest in peace. This show helped me to stay connect to her and her memories. It is a blessing to understand, respect and be proud of all the accomplishments women in the past achieved. Please bring back this show.

cameron w.

great show,not sure why it was cancelled

David W.

This is an insightful look into the history of the "other" heroes of the the second world war. This story, in whatever shape it takes allows us all to feel what was happening in that era. That is rarely illustrated in any other TV series or movie and portrayed in the shape of a "real" compelling story. It's worthy of all who lived through these hard times.

Natalie P.

Just found this series!

Kevin K.

Great writing; great directing; great acting and casting; meaningful and uplifting, while showing what WW2 was really like. Great historical depiction of the 1940s

Teresa O.

More classy shows like "Bomb Girls" need to be on TV. A movie series finale would be lame and not appropriate for such a brilliant show.

kim a.

It was a great show, bring it back!!

Carmen C.

This is one of the few Canadian series that speaks of the true history of Canada. I have been a fan since day 1...and my entire family watches this show...in Vancouver....in Calgary....and in Toronto. We all love it. We don't understand why it was taken off the air when there were so many Bomb Girls Fans out there...
EVERYONE LOVES BOMB GIRLS!!!
Please bring it back. Give this show a chance!!

chanika c.

It's a great historical drama that is not only educating but entertaining!

Jessica L.

This show is an inspiration to women. It shows how far we've come.

Marjorie D.	It is quality programming set in the WWII style about real people and their struggles! LOVE IT!!
Barbara C.	This has been an very interesting show. I can not imagine why it was canceled. Most show on TV these days are inane. Not Bomb girls. It has great characters and plots.
Laurette S.	The type of woman that you want to be and the kind of friends you wish you had. Inspirational.
Juanita C.	ugh!! great story about strong women!!
Teresa C.	PLEASE bring this back!! I looked forward to watching this every week here in AZ!!
Vera L.	I like it
Holly S.	It's a brilliant show with an amazing cast. It should most definitely be renewed!
Lorraine Q.	Because the stories are real, the characters are real. TV shows like this are rare. Please bring it back!
caity p.	i really like this show
Rebekah B.	I am a COLOSSAL fan of period dramas. This show makes me extremely happy because it takes place in a time that interests me. Please keep the show going. It means so much to me :)
Jennifer P.	This one of the best shows I have ever seen!!!

Lora T.

I love this show and I want it to continue!!!!

Rosie G.

Bomb Girls is one of THE BEST shows in the history of television!!! It tells important, interesting, and enjoyable stories of our North American ancestors during WW2, who fought the good fight, and saved, literally, the world. PLEASE, somebody at this network, realize how EXCELLENT, POPULAR, and LOVED Bomb Girls is, and give it another chance for more seasons!!! The writing is Genius, the actors and actresses are Brilliant!!! Please bring it back, we need more of Bomb Girls!!!

Jacquie z.

Until this past weekend, I had never heard of Bomb Girls series. I started watching on Netflix on Saturday and became so enthralled with the quality and level of story twists, before I knew it I had watched all episodes of the two seasons. I live in Fairfield, California USA and am very impressed with all aspects of the show. I was disappointed to learn the show was cancelled but definitely look forward to seeing the two hour movie in the future.

Adrienne T.

Because I love the program and the acting is fantastic!!!

Patty E.

THIS SHOW IS AMAZING. it is an inspiration to modern girls. Please air a third season!

Leanne k.

This series portrays an Important part of our history done with impeccable accuracy.

Belynda D.

Teach of local history and really opens ones eyes about how life was back in the 40's.

Katherine B.

This show is amazing but needs to be marketed better, that is why not a lot of people watch it...because they simply do not know about it. They only way I found it was on netflix. Not only is the story, cast, music amazing but the imagery and the real world issues presented hit home.

Diane J.

We came across this series and love it. My Mom was born in 1923, my Father 1922 and it is just like the stories, fashion and history they were so proud of for America. People bash America now and this show is so well done it makes me proud. We have one more episode to go tomorrow. I wanted to see if there was going to be another season now I am sad. Pleaaasee consider continuing. We have fallen in love with the writing and music.

LaRhonda M.

As a young watcher, this program, even with it's hardships, downfalls, racism, womanism and any ism you can think of, points out everything positive for me. I see women stepping up handling business during a time when the world saw years of hard times. It has taught me that adversity does not mean give up but press on through terrible time. Stand side by side, stay strong no matter how different you are or what you believe. Each episode was well written and although it told a constant story, there was a lesson to be learned from each show. I really enjoyed how each character was given a voice, was allowed to show strength. This show seemed to be addressing things that our country is still fighting till this day. It is a huge mistake to cancel this program. I know that if given the chance too, it can become the best program around. I have told so many people to go back and watch the episodes that are now available on Netflix because it is a must see. The numerous times I rewinded the episodes, just to see what happened. I have not been able to stop watching and since I only have 2 seasons, I will rewatch them again with the guarantee of catching something new that I did not catch the first time. Please bring back this amazing show, with the same amazing actors, the same vision- to address and bring to light a view from a woman's perspective. I think even now, people born in this time can appreciate what women were to them during this time.

brian m.

I just found the show on Netflix and couldn't stop until I saw all of it. It's a fantastic series and I very much hope they'll make more episodes.

James A.

Bomb Girls is an amazing series with a brilliant cast. It paints a picture of the time, showing us the myriad of ways people suffered without being heavy handed. There aren't enough female role models on TV, too many of them are just walking tropes instead of characters with depth. It's obvious that this show didn't receive proper advertisement, give it another chance. I was going to cancel my Netflix subscription, bring back Bomb Girls and I'll stick around.

Christina E.

I don't have a lot of free time to sit and watch crap tv. When I do get the chance, I go for non- reality shows as when i dont, I can literally feel all my brain cells dying, gasping for a savior. Then came season 1 of bomb girls on Netflix. I live in the US And can't get Canadian television. It only took one episode to get me hooked. And I've been patiently waiting for season 2 to arrive. Once I watched it (on my two consecutive days off) I searched for my new count down of season 3 to air. Sadly I learned they were canceled and I'm in uproar. With an incredible plot and characters I want to be friends with in real life, I cannot believe it was canceled. Bring back bomb girls!!!! I already feel empty as the spot this show has had in my heart has been ripped from its fans.

Sereata L.

I love this show. Better than most of the vapid crap that is currently on tv these days. entertaining and historically relevant drama.

irwin s.

most tv is really bad. this show was excellently written and acted

Linda O.

This show is amazing, well done, important to me for these women who work so hard to help all these men. This is a inspiration for me and the show deserve to continue in the future for these women and men who work and fight for us. They deserve respect and the world to know about their story. Thank you from me to these women and men at war.

Theresa W.

This is a very good series and I'm not sure why the "best" always seem to get pulled? This has happened on the CW too with other shows that had great potential. This is a really good show that depicts the history and life during this specific era...very sadden by this news!

Nadine A.

I've watched a lot of UK WW2 dramas and this is the first Canadian drama I've seen. I am a Canadian living abroad and it makes me feel proud to see part of my country's history as well as feeling homesick. Please do not take this off the air, it is the best show out of Canada I've seen. It needs to be advertised to its full potential rather than being passed on for some stupid American show which the majority of them I don't watch and I'm 22! There needs to be shows like Bomb Girls on the air for the minority of people who are not brain dead. We may only be a minority now but there have been other period dramas that have sparked the interest of the world before.

Heather W.

I really enjoyed watching Bomb Girls. I was so excited for Season 2 to start and then have been let down to find only episode one was going to air. Please continue the show. TV needs more quality programming, Two Broke Girls does not fall into that category.

Michelle W.

Its a big part of history. Finally a show that shows morals and what life was like back in the day. We have a lot of crap shows nowadays. This shows meaning and how females learned to help our country. It should be a show of inspiration for our young females vs ones of sex that are already on every station. That is what kids see today instead of something inspirational and of roll models. Then ppl wonder why the world is going to crap.

Kelly A.

This is a really great emotional show about a very important and interesting topic and time in American history, for both men and women of all races. It touches on so many important topics and was done quite well. I'll be disappointed to not see several more seasons of Bomb Girls. A 2-hour wrap-up movie isn't enough.

Ashley O.

This show is absolutely stunning, please don't take it from the fans!

Pamela J.

Historical and we see women meeting, facing and conquering opposition and challenges head on at a time when we had very little opportunity, freedom to express and explore our womanhood and much less a voice. Young woman today need to see why many of our excuses, immoral loose behaviors, and what women before us had to endure being taken in vain is UNACCEPTABLE. Really though how can anyone deny this show has everything you want.

Colleen S.

One of the best shows ever! Absolutely can't believe a show of this quality would be cancelled! Please bring it back, it's a bright,sophisticated oasis, in an endless sea of trivial, uninteresting shows. It's a gem and should be brought back, at the very least for one or two seasons!!!

Regina S.

1) THE WRITING 2) THE CAST 3) WWII HISTORY RE WOMEN

With all of the bad tv(really horrible), I thought perhaps Canadian TV was the respite I was looking for. I was discussing just today with a friend, telling him that at least Canada had raised the bar and we didn't ' all have to watch usa junk. Well, that was short-lived when today, after watching the last episode of season 2, I learned that the series had been cancelled. What is wrong with you people who once in a while produce good TV, and then cancel and replace with horrible, degrading, dumbed down reality TV or some such other muck? Pleas reconsider or at least finish the plot lines in a movie. Why do you think call the midwife and such from young british counterparts have done so well? Because good TV is just that...good. Get ready from pushback...your audience is not going to consist of adolescent boys for long....you forgot that we midde agers have the funds to effect change.

Colleen M.

I have only just bought the 1st season of Bomb girls yesterday and I have 2 episodes left. It's a really great show! I think that this show is one of those really great sleepers that need to keep going and get some publicity as I had never heard of it until I was perusing the T.V series aisles. And now that I have it's been cancelled? WOW! To go from one great high to a low in a matter of seconds. Please give this delightful series a 3rd season as I'm sure that there are a few people just beginning to find this series. I am in love with Betty! I am excited to see where Kate and their romance goes.....

Sally K.

It was the only one hour drama I watched. Please keep it. may not have been bigger in the USA because most elderly people don't know about Reelz to check it out. They should have advertised more on other TV stations.

Tammy M.

This series is historically important. It is wonderfully written and the actors are excellent. I have never written to a TV program or a celebrity. I have a degree in Comparative Cultural studies and I am the mother of two men who have served over seas. PLEASE renew this historically significant program. Thank you

Ella B.

Because Betty is just perfect..

Josefine J.

Bomb girls inspires me!! Not just the clothes but the attitude. I think young girls needs to see this show in sweden...

L V.

This is one the best shows on TV! I have been impatiently waiting for the new season to begin so I go online to find it's been cancelled?!!! My husband and I are so upset that we my block Reelz from our programing!! This is just crazy! If it's all about ratings then change the darn timeslot!

norma c.

Bring back our heroic Bomb Girls. The show should not have moved to Mon. from Wed. It was up against Murdoch Mysteries which is another great production .This show had all of my friends talking about it .My grandmother and great aunt were bomb girls which I did not know about until I was telling my mom about the show. It is important for people to be educated with productions with Canadian history. I hope to see the return of the amazing Bomb Girls.

Karen D.

This is such a great show! I've been wondering when the new season would start and decided to look online to see if I could find out. I was shocked to see that it has been cancelled. I just discovered this show in the spring, and it quickly became a must see for me. Please bring it back!

Sandy D.

Sick Sick Sick of reality tv junk and same old same old shows.

Because it's the best show EVER!! This is the only Canadian show that is actually any good, and it's not only good, it's awesome, and they're taking it away! Stupid decision! At least they are ending it properly with the TV movie, but I would still rather watch the show.....new ones! Just can't believe it, I was absolutely shocked when I read it was cancelled

Jessie R.

I just discovered and devoured this show via Netflix. And I'm devastated to find that it's already been cancelled. Smart, historical fiction, strong women characters + compelling story-telling. You have a hit here with an ever-growing fanbase. Please don't let it end prematurely!

Anna P.

Female Protagonists. There aren't many decent role models out there for women these days, most of the time we just see gossipy trash, and recently more supernatural themed goop. But bomb girls gives a feeling of empowerment to young female viewers, and it provides a small insight into the world of war and history. Bomb Girls is not 100% historically accurate, but at least viewers may now see what life used to be like without cell phones and the internet. It's good, we all love Bomb Girls, please don't cancel it.

Phillip O.

Quality shows deserve support and this show also teaches our youth about a time no generation can afford to forget.

michelle w.

Shows that engage both my partner and me with this kind of intrigue are rare indeed. Canada can be proud of this production - a cut well above it's competition - strongly written, eye opening historical perspectives remain relevant today. World War II dramas focus on the men - mostly British and American- this one brings balance...Canadian women and their loved ones who who experienced this pivotal period in history. Please continue to entertain - but more importantly - to enlighten us!

Beth E.

I was impressed by this show when I found it on Netflix! The characters are so endearing, and true to life! Imagine my sadness at finding my new favorite show was cancelled before it really got off the ground. What a shame. Even fictional women are so threatening that they must be silenced....

dana s.

Love the show, love the characters...so much terrible crap on television these days I hate it when a decent show is cancelled. We are not all mindless zombies willing watch whatever reality show crap they shove at us. I am not one of those anyway. BBC produces wonderful shows, what is wrong with American and Canadian television execs.

Elizabeth M.

Others have stressed the high quality of the production, acting and writing. The show is telling an unknown story about WWII that deserves more notice and that should be carried out to a satisfying finale for all the characters. It is reminiscent of "Foyle's War" in telling about aspects of history that people would otherwise never hear about, unless they became historical experts. The show is great, and we in the U.S. want more! I have just finished dashing through the second season and Netflix and am hoping for a third!

Yannique F.

Not only was this program interesting to watch because of excellent writing and story development, but I think it's important to have more stories centering around strong women. I feel attached to every character on the show. I was enlightened to Canada's war efforts during WWII and feel so inspired by the work the real women in that era did.

Denise S.

Bomb Girls is one of the most intelligent, well written, & well acted series in all of current television. I am disappointed in the decision makers who made the decision to cancel this series. I hope they have the wisdom to recognize this as an unwise decision. And, continue this valuable asset.

Alisa F.

I loved the series Bomb Girls. This show was an intelligent and highly entertaining look at a very important time for women in history. The media seldom shows anything that represents women truthfully and intelligently. This show is such a powerful and moving insight into women's lives. Women are very under represented as 3 dimensional characters. I am so tired of seeing sex based portrayals of what women do in culture and history. There is really nothing to replace this incredible show. You had ratings you didn't even know about, albeit they were women.

Christina K.

This is more than just a television show. It showcases amazing talent from Canada and it pays tribute to the ladies who were working behind the scenes during WWII. I fear that the new generations are beginning to forget what a horrible time it was for everyone involved (directly and indirectly), and they see war as just a game. This show portrays the emotional toll the war took on people who were not on the front-lines but still deeply affected by one of the worst times in human history.

Patty D.

Please do not cancel this show - as a lover of the 1940's - this show brings such pleasure to watch and it helps me to know what it was like for my parents during this era when they were married. This is the best show - you have to be crazy to cancel this - this is a show that reminds you of when things were old fashioned and people weren't caught up in the fast pace we have today in life.

Gloria A.

I watch the show on the Armed Forces Network. It's wonderful to have a WW2 show focusing on women helping the war.

Debbie R.

This show lets today's world have a glimpse into the hardships felt during some of the toughest times, that has given us what we have today...not to mention it is not full of cursing, sex scenes that do not leave anything to the imagination...great story, great actors. Didn't know they were cancelling until I was looking for the season premier...for some reason the good stuff seems to disappear...

Staci S.

This is the best show I have seen in a loooooong time. It's so rare to have a show where you get so wrapped up in each characters' lives and stories. The writing is fantastic, and the acting is wonderful! There needs to be a show on the air that is this amazing, and it needs to be Bomb Girls.

candice c.

I found Bomb Girls on Netflix and Fell in love with the show! I Don't care for Reality tv but to find a show that reflects a time that my Great Grandma went through and i pictured her there with the other women. I have admired for what those women did. Please Bring back Bomb Girls!!!

Holly L.

This is a wonderful show, also hard to get in scotland but worth the struggle! The show is not only hugley entertaining but also underlines the history of the women who served in the war all those years ago. So its educational and great to watch, what more could you want?

Emma T.

The show is amazing and not just a peice of fluff. I watch it for the characters and their relation to the war effort. It is also really imporant to show what it was like at the home front (much like Foyles War which was cancelled and renewed!) and its rare tha we see a series about how war affected Canada and of course women. Please bring it back!!

Brittany S.

This show shows strong female roles and it shows sexuality through another decade! I feel the audience and everyone who watches it can really learn from that time and benefit from it. Its well written, the cast has such chemistry it is insane. Why would you cancel it? At least do one more season to wrap it up. I am dying to know what happens and what will happen. Please dont cancel it this show is amazing and has such freaking potential, its uncanny.

Caroline Y.

Bomb Girls is a history lesson for all of Canada to see, appreciate and learn from. I am embarrassed to say I am one of the ignorant that did not know what went on in our own city. This series is beautifully written, which stars exceptional talent and is very, very well cast.... Shame, Shame on you if you think this show is not worth continuing. It's a creation that everyone should be very proud of and now it is the networks responsibility, a Canadian Network at that to make sure it happens. A crack-whip marketing team needs to be working on making sure the numbers watching grow....

George S.

I am a teacher and this show was quite instructional as to what WWII was like at home for the women who contributed. MY grandmother had been an employee at Wallace Barnes Spring for 15 years when the war broke out. Much like Lorna, she had a difficult family to deal with while working as a caring matron to the new women on the line. The stories of Bomb Girls are very reminiscent of stories she told. For the sake of History and Culture, please reconsider your decision.

Chelsea M.

I discovered Bomb Girls on Netflix and was devastated to learn that I would not be able to continue watching these characters I've become so invested in. Despite the story taking place over 70 years ago, the issues translate to the present. I do hope Global TV will reconsider the continuation of Bomb Girls.

Emma B.

This show is creative and inspiring. It's unique among tv shows these days which mostly show drunk stupid people making poor choices. Bomb Girls hits home on many important human rights and womens' rights issues of the time. It also has excellent actors and plenty of interesting story lines.

Kelly W.

I just started watching this show in April 2013. I cam upon it accidentally and have been hooked ever since. I love the strong female characters and the historical setting. I have looked forward to every Wednesday at 7:00 pm. Please please don't cancel this quality programming and wonderful show.

Rachel A.

This show is incredibly powerful both with the cast and with the story it tells. It is heartbreaking that due to cancellation this show may not live up to its full potential and tell the story it could tell. Bring back Bomb Girls!

Shoua L.

This is an outstanding show. The cast is amazing!!! It's nice to see a show the whole family can enjoy. Also getting to see WWII through the eyes of these wonderful women. Getting to experience the nation coming together. It's just really genuine television that you can't get anymore in today's living. Too many reality stuff.

Meredith L.

This show's strong female characters (and the actors who portray them) are breathtaking! Every young woman like me should watch this show! It serves as a reminder of how much women have achieved in the workplace and also how much more we can achieve in the future! I started to watch this show on Netflix and finished the first season in a day and a half because it was unlike anything else I have seen on television! Please consider the audience you have and the audience you could have in the future if this show got more exposure! Please renew Bomb Girls!

Pat R.

Bom Girls is the most relevant show on TV that shows just how important women are, both in times of war & in daily life. The show is so well written, & provides role models for today's young girls, who seem to have no idea how to stand up for themselves, whether it be abusive boyfriends or bullying, etc. There is so much garbage on TV, I can't believe that Global would cancel such an important & relevant show.

Mable L.

My Mother was a "Bomb Girl"!! This wonderful series has remembered my mother's work and dedication to this country!! This is why this series should continue!! The Bomb Girls series, has brought my own daughters relation to the past, seeing how her own grandmother worked as a Real Bomb Girl!!!! Please, continue the series Bomb Girls!!

Morgan L.

Bomb Girls is one of the most amazingly written and historically accurate shows I have ever seen. It's brilliant how a show set so far in the past can affect and entertain so many. It really shines a light on women during this crucial era in history, many forget all the contributions women made and what a turning point it was for feminism and progress in general. With all the trash currently on television I think that it is crucial that we keep such a stunning and genius show running. Save Bomb Girls!

Jane F.

Save this show. Just did the Netflix marathon. This show is too good to cancel!

Amelia S.

Bomb Girls is the only good show on Reelz. Without it, they are nothing.

Diane K.

Sorry to hear that a third season isn't being planned. I watched season 1 and 2 on Netflix in the US and really enjoyed it. I hope the decision to cancel the series is reversed.

Jessica

I Love Bomb Girls!!! Please bring it back. Watching from Los Angeles, California.

LeeAnn

I would love to see Bomb Girls TV show and it can't quit now. The show must go on and you can't leave us hangin.

Dennis L.

After watching the entire 18 episodes of Bomb Girls I was saddened to hear the series has been cancelled in favor of a 2 hour movie to "wrap up loose ends". This is unfortunate as Bomb Girls exposes the chauvinistic side of not only Canadian society, but American society as well during those times. Unfortunately chauvinism is still alive and well in many countries where the role of women is often "thrown into the backseat". As a father of an 18 year old girl I think series like Bomb Girls show an important part of history that needs to be told. I urge Global to reconsider the cancellation of the series and continue on for another season to address some of the issues women faced during World War II and after. Remember, when the war was over women were chased back into the role of housewives and discouraged from continuing in the workforce. Someone needs to tell the story.

Sue F.

im learning about another countrys war efforts to start with...but love the storys of the familys surrounding the factory, found this program by chance, and never looked back only wishing i could watch the next episode there and then. brilliant program...want lots more.....

Rhonda S.

I don't watch alot of tv. When I saw a commercial a month ago. I have been spending time catching up on globaltv.ca. I am on season 2 episode 4 now and then I find out it has been cancelled. With PVR's and TIVO out there now, half a season with low numbers isn't enough time to judge the ratings. I just found it.

Karen V.

I never knew that Bomb Girls existed! That's a marketing problem. Netflix suggested it. I love it. It's not full of blood, guts, and gore. It's a quality program that develops complex characters. If you go through the effort of producing and making a series, for goodness sake, market it! Please bring Bomb Girls back.

Charles R.

It is a well written and acted series. We have the talent why don't we showcase it? It is an interesting look at a part of our history and one of the most engaging shows on television. I cannot understand why a show of this calibre is cancelled and mindless American sitcoms and reality shows are being aired. This show has a fan base, a silent one, but it is there.

Chrystelle B.

It's based on a historic well written, compassionate story with much potential. Great actresses & actors , the characters are unique and lovable. For once a show from a canadian perspective beautifully shown on Bomb Girls. The chemistry of the show is wonderful. Don't cancel Bomb Girls, it would be a mistake.

rick c.

my wife & I enjoy watching it. I feel that it is very well done. It reflects an often overlooked view of the home front during ww2. Woman ran industry, & the world really never was the same afterward. They were now interested in more than just being a housewife. Can you imagine what they went through? Being a locomotive engineer while your loved ones where at war overseas. Then expected to go home & raise children when it was over? The world hasn't been the same since.

DeeDee M.

The show is so original there will never be another show even close to this. I've grown so tired of all of the reality shows and the shows that aren't even close to reality. It was so nice to watch a show about something that actually took place during an important time in our history. Love the characters, love the attention to detail, with everything from their clothes and scenery, to the way they speak the correct slang for the time. I hope Global TV will reconsider and give this show another season.

Brenda W.

There is only a few shows that Global offers that have any quality to them and this show is one of the best. I f they must give priority to the US then perhaps anouther channel can pick it up.

Judith M.

Bomb Girls is a great show. Tv doesn't have a lot of really good shows but Bomb Girls is by far one of the best.

Lorine H.

This was the only show I made time for while I was in paramedic school! My grandfather was a T4 in the US Army during WWII and this show allows us to see what the lives in North America was like during this time. It is QUALITY television! I am so SICK of the crap that passes as television anymore. Reality tv is a joke! I want Bomb Girls! Please renew it for another season! It is doing well, why fix something when it is not broken!!! Go BOMB GIRLS!!!

Nancy M.

The story line is brilliant and gives us glimpse of the past that has only been equaled lately by Downton Abbey! The cast works together so well that you caught up in the story line and at the end of the show have to remind yourself that WWII is not still being fought! I worked in a factory myself until recently and they got the details right! There is more than enough poor programing out there-- save this great one!

Cate M.

The knowledge of the show passes down information not to be forgotten. I love to hear stories of WWII and have since I was very young. This is a wholesome show that my daughter and I can watch together while learning about such an important time in our culture. Please save this gem of a show!!

Rhonda M.

As an historian, I value this show for both its historic richness and its entertainment value. This is an important piece of television that is incredibly well written and performed. It is completely absurd to cancel it when it is just now coming into its own so to speak.

Penelope G.

This is one of the few great Canadian shows we have. Why cancel a good thing? This show had a lot of viewers, and would have had more if it weren't for the interruption by an American reality show. It shows a pivotal shift in our history, which resonates with people world wide. Give Canadian television it's chance to shine.

John M.

I had a whole list of reasons why my wife and I love this show and why it should NOT be cancelled. However, after reading the many fine comments already posted, I find that I can't add anything new to the discussion except to say that this show is wonderful and meaningful to us as my wife's mother was a "bomb girl" in the US during WWII - please save this show!

Kathryn L.

this is an amazing, fun, informative, and addictive show. I want more, more, more! My 15 year old daughter watches it too, and its much more fun than her American and world history class - its turning her around from "hating history" to loving it. keep it coming, please! there is so much more to see and learn and be "in the know" about. The younger generation needs to understand how they got where they are today. this is a story that needs to be told- the good, the bad, & the ugly! we need more, more, more! please! bomb girls season 3! Aho!

cindy k.

love the show and it is part of are heritage

Patty T.

Simply put, the show is smart. The dialogue, the acting, the storyline; it's real T.V. ,not reality T.V. And thank goodness for that. I enjoy watching a good drama that isn't full of drama queens and stupid dialogue. It has so much going for it. I hope you will consider keeping it on. You should be proud of it.

Julie P.

I love this show. My grandmother and her sister worked in munitions factories in Detroit. I feel like i'm looking into their lives with this show. I just discovered it on Netflix and I was so disappointed to learn that it was canceled before i even started watching. Please bring it back!

Kristine S.

This show isn't just another show!! It portrays our history and what are past generations have gone through and the most elegant and beautiful way! It brings tears to my great grandmothers and grandmothers eyes! There should be more shows like this on TV instead of all the bullshit shows like Jersey Shore on MTV!! This show means so much to me and to everyone else I know watching it! PLEASE PLEASE RENEW BOMB GIRLS!!!

Dave M.

Bomb Girls is critically acclaimed, has mass appeal, and the strength of vocal fans. I am flummoxed by its cancellation. It makes no business sense to me. Certainly, there must be another producer that would pick up this gem? The time is right for women to see themselves as vital participants in history.

Aimee S.

History lessons never really mentioned the part women played in the war. This program was educational, thoroughly entertaining and endlessly inspirational. Save Bomb Girls!

Alicia H.

Bomb Girls is not only an incredible TV show, it is also an excellent adaptation of working women in WWII. I am totally gutted to hear of its cancellation.

Bobbie B.

I love this show! It has an amazing story line with great actors/actresses and is a quality television show. It engages you and is full of emotional complexities and truth about an era of femininity. I truly believe this is the type of show that can renew female relationships and make women look at one another differently. This is so much more than just another television show!

Carole S.

This is intelligent drama that focuses on life at home during the Second World War and the essential role of women and other people on the home front. My Mother tells me that her senior friends are very disappointed. Most do not have Internet access and will not see this petition. this excellent show needs another chance..give it more publicity..Many people I know did not even know it existed.

Sandra R.

I have met many women in the course of my work over the years who made immense contributions in various roles during the war effort. I have always listened to their stories in complete awe. This show plays an important key in keeping their legacy alive. As Lorna says in the first season... these women were our soldiers at home. Lest we forget.

Denise S.

This series brings back so much history in an era that was so important and vital to remember. It really gives the audience a true picture of the character of people back then and how they lived. I absolutely love it, and look forward to each episode. Please do not cancel it, the younger generation really needs to be exposed to series like the Bomb Girls.

renee g.

i liked that bomb girls was based on something real, i think it shows how bad things are when a show that is based on what really happened and what women went through to get us where we are now, is cancelled and the shows about vampires and werewolves are top shows. i wont lie i watch the vampire diaries and other shows, but i do like bomb girls because it shows how women were treated, i was looking forward to see what happened and how it ended..... im wondering how i can watch the rest even though its not being played.

Karina S.

There are so few shows with the writing and acting quality as Bomb Girls. No schtick. Just great stories and excellent acting. Inspiring and moving performances by lead actresses who deserve to be seen. I would hate not to see these women's stories play to their natural conclusions.

Natalie B.

Bomb Girls is one of the most 1. well made educational, feminist, sensitive shows on television.

Kristin P.

Rare is it to find a show that can make you cheer for the characters when they do something great, be sad when they are hurt, and yell when everything goes wrong. It's rare to find something that connects with you so deeply and inspires you. So please consider renewing Bomb Girls.

shadia s.

LOVE THE SHOW

Marti D.

"Bomb Girls" has really empowered me! I've never been hooked onto a TV Series besides cartoons because in the cartoons I can escape from reality. Live action TV Series in the US currently don't teach anything worth learning and I thought the people who wrote and acted in them were just annoying attention hogs. That's until I watched "Bomb Girls"... Its sad to have read that a TV series that is making aware of a part of human history, dedication the lives of the Bomb Girls who did live in that era and SACRIFICED just as much as the men, and is empowering many Women and Men being canceled. WHY!? I was proud to see someone create such a beautifully outrageous story honoring not only the Bomb Girls and women, but also a lot of minorities. Please, please don't cancel "Bomb Girls"!!

Cindy P.

One day when flipping through the channels on my TV, I found this show and fell in love with it after 2 episodes. The acting and storyline for bomb girls is fantastic and I even love the costuming. I am very upset that the show has been cancelled and can only hope that the global tv network can change their minds and understand that fans of bomb girls love history and most importantly this show!

J. E.

Bomb Girls is not only interesting, but a true piece of Canadian history that needs to be shown. Also, it was placed on Monday night up against two really strong shows - Murdoch Mysteries and The Following. Global needs to put it back where it was before so that those who want to watch don't have to time shift it on their PVR's! please give it one more season in a better time slot and see what happens! Finally, stop splitting the season for other shows, especially for inane American shows that are useless!

Alain A.

There are too many cop, lawyer, hospital and "Reality" shows. Bomb Girls, being a period drama is different. Displaying a important in history where women were let out of the kitchen and into the working world en mass. The differences in attitudes between then and now is amazing to see. Watching these women face new challenges and new ideals. Keep your blinkin' cop dramas (Rookie Blue) then, you just lost another viewer.

Keirsten G.

Bomb Girls is is a popular , critically acclaimed Canadian television show. It helps tell a very important part of history that often get forgotten. Please Global and Shaw please change your'e minds on the canceling of this wonderful show that Canada and world so badly need.

Russell G.

Bomb Girls is an incredible show. The characters are strong role models for young girls, and brings to life the history of such an important era. Please reconsider your decision to cancel this show.

Anna A.

Lets be honest, there is little GOOD television out right now. Rarely have I seen a show that makes me check a website (global even!) daily to see if a new episode is out. The story lines are compelling, you can't not watch! On the same token, its incredibly educational and touches a number of social issues without feeling like a "heritage minute" or "The More You Know" moment. I love it. This is what I've been dying for in the television realm. You watch a really great episode and go...OMG I have to wait a week for another episode!?! Then you stop and go, wait, did they have a lesbian on a historical TV show? Wait it wasn't forced! Damn, that's genius. Not only that, but let's be honest, it seems rare that a Canadian Television series is good enough to be seen outside of Canada and it seems that there are Bomb Girls fans all over the world. This is an excellent testament to the amazing people we have working in the Canadian film and television industry.

marisol c.

Keep quality tv.

Lisa M.

So many Canadians complain that Americans don't know much about Canada or her history; well this show is a fine example of a TV show which presents our neighbor to the north in a very significant light. Many Americans who watch this show will learn not only about the heroic war effort in Canada similar to our own during WWII but will see Canada as another producer of quality TV just like Britain!

Celena N.

It's amazing. It's Canadian. It's the best show I've seen since Being Erica or Big Bang Theory. It's not reality tv. I face reality everyday. When I turn tv, I want to be taken somewhere to relax. Not to someone's reality of teen pregnancy or survival skills. I don't care if you're the biggest loser. I'm an athlete struggling with injuries. I have my own health to focus on. Honey Boo Boo only teaches us to laugh at the less fortunate. It teaches us to laugh at overweight folks. It makes people think it's okay to make fun of others. Keep substance in shows alive. Keep the bombgirls alive!

Paul M.

My dear father fought at Omaha Beach during the D-Day invasion. He would not talk about the war, other than how awful to watch your buddies getting killed. Approaching 70 years since D-Day. My generation and especially younger generations need to be reminded of WWII and its significance. I visited Omaha Beach and a concentration camp near Salzburg. The horrors were very real.

David B.

one of the best Canadian produced shows I've seen. Great story, great acting and a great period piece that some of us heard our parents and grand parents talk about. Looked forward to it every week. Will miss the Girls very much. back to mind numbing reality TV I guess.

John B.

This is a beautifully crafted show that explores an aspect of 20th Century Canadian history unappreciated, or forgotten by many. The acting is wonderful, the costumes and sets are sumptuous, and the storyline is riveting and everything about this show is critically acclaimed. It is a very positive portrayal of fighting for various individuals rights including women, minorities and it shows them overcoming great odds and growing in the process. We value the richness of the characters and the plot lines.

C. B.

This show deals with real issues, with the drama to keep things going. Excellent Canadian programming, revealing a piece of our history that was unknown to many until now. Keep this show going online if you can't keep it on TV. The following will continue to grow.

Elise M.

Do you see how this show has managed to bring people all over the world together?! Don't give up on Bomb Girls. Bring on a sponsor that fans will commit to support and you won't regret it (ex. 'Chuck' fans who bought Subway every week)! Long live the blue shift!

Sharon S.

Love the story line in particular the history of Toronto during ww2. It is really important as a woman to see how our roles and rights have changed. I think this is of particular important for young women who have no. Idea how limited life was for women not all that long ago.

Janet P.

I am from the U.S. I find it interesting to see how life in Canada was during WWII. My late dad served in the U.S. Air Force in WWII and I am sure he would have loved this show. I think we all need this type of programming. It's nostalgic and somewhat educational to the younger "reality show" generation.

Ana V.

I'm an immigrant to Canada, and watching Bomb Girls inspired me. I love the strong characters and the female power and determination. I just watched the final episode of season 2 and when I looked for the season 3 premier date I found out about its cancellation. I look forward to see the rest of the stories. Please take into account this petition, if the series wasn't popular people wouldn't bother to do this!

Caitlin M.

Bomb Girls is a show with unique Canadian content With brilliant writing, superb acting, and beautiful sets and cinematography. Bomb Girls stands apart by other televised dramas by bringing to the forefront strong female characters that are rich and layered.

Tara T.

This show is an amazing product coming out of Canada. One that as a nation, we should be absolutely PROUD of. It is a show that demonstrates superb acting, wonderful writing and great cinematography. Telling a story about a little discussed subject in our military history that I never really thought about. Bomb Girls has opened my eyes and educated me on the important role that women played in the war efforts specifically in WWII. I, for one find it not only difficult but unfathomable that such a dynamic show can so easily be taken off the air. I do believe that the power of the viewers will persuade the "powers that be" to reconsider their decision and return this excellent program to its rightful place and not relegate it to the memories of what could have been.

Lia P.

I love the show

Dale-Anne S.

My mother worked as a manager of the Massey Ferguson munitions factory during WW2. I enjoyed stepping back in time to watch the bomb girls capture this era. The show was well done and a triumph to Canadian television. I am sad to see it so easily dropped by Global considering its appeal to both Canadians and those living in distant lands. I hope the decision is reconsidered by the outpouring of public support garnered by the public.

Brittany C.

I started watching this show when I found it on Netflix. It definitely captured my heart. All of the girls are so dimensional. They all have flaws and weaknesses, and they all have strengths. They're real. Watching this show motivates me and makes me want to push myself forward. I hope that it will be renewed for another season. I just watched the Season 2 finale, and I know there are so many unresolved story lines. And I know the show revolves around the war, but I think it would also be amazing to see how these characters handle their lives after the war. They have all been so obviously affected by it I'm sure watching them handle the changes that would come would be inspiring.

Tiffany S.

Those women really did risk their lives every single day. And, most of them, as the show shows, were away from their families as well. To me, they were just as brave as the men. They did their part in the war-effort, & we should do our part in recognizing them for it. Plus, Bomb Girls has an amazing cast, & they help make it as amazing as it is. It's one of my favorite shows of all time.

Martha F.

We love this show!!!! Don't take it away :(

Kent P.

Women coming of age.

Karen M.

We need smart well written shows like this to stay on the air. They teach us about the women during wartimes, they teach us about the war effort. The show gives us history lessons and geography lessons of our country. Please bring Bomb Girls back for a third season.

Rebecca V.

This is an amazing show! Well written and great acting! It shows what Canadians did in the war effort and what we can do now with broadcasting! There are not enough great Canadian shows out there and when we get one, it gets cancelled! It doesn't make any sense!

Sandy H.

Bomb Girls is very well done series that should be renewed because, it's a historical period about the life and culture of WW2. During that time, it was the peak for women to have rights, and to be treated equally. Not only that, it opens up a new perspective about WWII. What is remarkable as well, is that a Canadian based story, created by Canadians. Americans have "Mad Men" and the UK has "Downton Abbey" & "Call the Midwife", that is adding to their history of television. "Bomb Girls" is a great addition to Canadian television, and has the potential to show to other countries that Canadians CAN make great entertainment.

Darlene G.

Great show!! My Mum was a bomb girl in Montreal in the 40's. She is now 94. I remember all her stories so watching this show reminds me of Mum and the danger to all these women who came to work and could possibly be blown sky high. Quite a dangerous job..hats off to the ladies all!!.

Cheyenne M.

Bomb Girls brought back such an important part of history to younger generations today. The cinematography and acting really captures that 1940's feel. I never lived back then, but every time I watch an episode it is as though I am right in tune with the time, the characters and this feeling is so rare in today's television. My daughter who is seven also loves the show and the girlishness each woman brings to our household every Monday night. Please do not cancel Bomb Girls!!

Beth H.

The quality of writing, the flaws and fabulousness of such well rounded characters would make it such a shame if this show were not renewed. It's so difficult to find amazingly portrayed and well-rounded women, and it would be simply heartless to makes us fall in love with your characters and not give us closure with a finale that was written intentionally as a finale.

Karen T.

Because it is simply good television. It is Canadian, it contains drama, history and humour. It features strong female characters. it relies on good plot and good characters and good writing, not on a laugh-rack, skimpy clothes, cheap gags or half-baked 'reality' elements. It makes me want to do the right thing, it makes me feel good. It makes me feel like there are good people in the world trying to do right by others and be better. A little romance doesn't hurt its cause either. Global should be proud of this show and do right by it and keep it around.

Mark B.

I cannot imagine this show being taken off the air! The writing is great, the character interactions are fascinating, and the message showing that the 'simpler life' wasn't always so simple, shows the struggles of earlier generations. It shows a patriotism that should make us all proud - - not the 'what is in it for me' society we have today. A fantastic show!! I am hoping this outpouring of fan support does get your attention.

annamarie b.

Its history its american its a great show and there is nothing else like this on tv

Kayla J.

Bomb Girls is an amazing show. It taught me so much. I never learned about what women were doing during war times in school. These characters are such strong women that every person should have the chance to watch. This show tells a great story and has an excellent cast.

A H.

Intelligent and informative television has fallen by the wayside, but Bomb Girls portrayed women as smart and complex individuals and I really appreciate that. My grandfather fought in the war, so this time period is especially interesting to me. The characters are well developed and the acting excellent. The writing brings to life so many different stories. This show needs to be renewed!!!!

Sharon B.

In a T.V. world filled with "reality show" programming, it has been my pleasure to view a series

D. M.

This is the first t.v. show that I have faithfully watched in twenty years. I haven't missed an episode. I already own Season 1 on DVD. What a refreshing change from other t.v. fare. Cancelling this show is just wrong. As Canadians we need to tell our own stories. Bomb Girls is doing an excellent job of this.

Sandra S.

It is a very good show showing how strong and motivated women can be in a time of the need. I am proud of those women who worked so tirelessly when our country needed them. So tired of the so called reality shows that are currently on TV. Bomb Girls depicts the 'real reality' of the day.

Tiffany B.

Bomb Girls is truly amazing and unique. It is literally the ONLY television show that I MUST and do watch on a weekly basis. It reminds us of a part of our history that seems to have been forgotten and left in the dark. It is beautifully scripted, played, and presented. It would be such a shame to get rid of this amazing show.

Tatiana A.

It is an amazing show with great cast and i'd love to see more seasons

Jason T.

This is a magnificent series touch on so many different items not usually covered in media portrayals of WWII. -it provides a Canadian viewpoint, something not often seen in the media. -rather than being set on the frontlines, this shows WWII from the Canadian home front. -its central characters are women, an important voice in the war effort yet rarely focused on in media productions. -a fascinating hard look at how Canada treated "enemy aliens" (e.g., Marco Moretti and his family) As a student and a teacher of Canadian history, I feel that this series provides a unique look at Canada in WWII, and I have recommended the series not only to family and friends, but to my students as a tool for learning a new aspect of a key point in the history of this great country. Please allow this series to continue on.

Amber M.

This is a quality program with interesting characters and excellent production value. It is simply an extra benefit that the content is richly Canadian. The stories told within this program deserve to be developed, not cut down in the prime of life! Is there really no hope for anything but garbage, 'reality' TV.... are we doomed to nothing better than Honey Boo Boo? Please do not do this Global!

Wendy E.

it is one of the most intellegent shows on Canadian television (or anywhere). Save the show

Linda G.

This has been an excellent series that takes you back to an era that provides so many memories of the good old days that have past. The series has been well researched. It has provided tidbits of the history of Canada. I was born & raised in the City of Toronto, have ancestors from that era. It has taken me on a journey down memory lane, not only with the streets I once walked in the City of Toronto but to remembering the slips & silk stockings my grandmother & mother once wore. - Excellent acting & an excellent series that is beyond belief that anyone would think of cancelling!

Beverly P.

I wouldn't sign a petition for just any show that I didn't want to be cancelled. Bomb girls is special, and I believe it can do a lot of good. How often do we learn about the part that women played in history? Almost never. How many shows give us so many different complicated female relationships? None that I can think of. Having representation of women making history and living their lives in a three-dimensional way is important for everyone. Bomb girls is a well written, well acted, well designed show, and I hope everyone who is a part of it knows that they are doing something important. I hope this show gets renewed for another season.

Blair A.

There is so much trash on TV. A quick browse through Global Prime time is to peer into a proverbial trash heap. Yet, there is Bomb Girls, a rare gem amid the muck (ahem, the Bachelor, Survivor...) this is a show that I would allow, nay require my daughter to watch. Executives dont care about the value of a program. Its the bottom line. Fair enough, here is your bottom line boys...merchandising revenue! I for one would pretty well buy anything Bomb Girls, so would my mother, grandmother, sister and daughter. There you have it, FOUR generations of women for whom this show is relevent. At say $35 bucks per item, one family alone generates $175 minimum! Now check out all these signatures...take out your calculators and start number crunching. Add to that the viewership you may alienate by cancelling this show. Bomb Girls is the ONLY reason I go to Global. The rest of your shows are...well...crap. Get creative boys and youll find that cancelling Bomb Girls is like killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

Blair A.

This show is a raity on TV today. It is intelligent, witty, well written and cast. A brief look at Globals prime time line up is to peer into the proverbial garbage heap of TV. There is Bomb Girls, the jewel that shines through the muck. Executives could care less, if it brings in cash they will cram anything down their viewers throats (Survivor Im looking in your direction...) so I will pitch this from another angle. If Bomb girls were merchandised well, the revenues have the potential to be quite lucrative. Many women across a diverse demographic would enjoy a variety of Bomb Girls inspired clothing and accessories, as a for instance. Lets not see another wonderful show be tamped out in favor of "reality" TV. Come on boys, wake up and smell the revenues.

Beth R.

Bomb Girls is a great show and I've seen every episode. Please keep making it!

Linda M.

LOVE THE SHOW.

Amber B.

Bomb Girls is such a terrific show -- interesting from a historical perspective and written with more heart, wit and intelligence than the vast majority of what's currently on TV. Not to mention how rare (unfortunately) it is to have a female-centric show that doesn't make the women caricatures. Please keep these storylines and wonderful characters going for a third season.

Allan P.

Bomb Girls is an extremely well scripted, acted and produced show that highlights the depth and breadth of talent in this country -both in front of the camera and behind it. Investment should be made to continue continue making Bomb Girls and proper promotion should be undertaken so it can find more audience and grow. Lengthy breaks in broadcasting and changes in show days make it impossible for a show to find a larger audience.

Danny M.

It's a really good show Im learning about the history of bomb girls I didn't knew there part in the war. :) love it .

Tarquini P.

BEST SHOW EVER, the only one I followed seriously and with interest, very well written, the characters are so lovely you get attached to them and as a woman I find it is important to show what was the life of women during WWII, their strenght and their sacrifices. I think that every women recognize themselves in at least one of the characters. This is my little happiness ! Had wonderful times watching it ! Please, renew this series ! Don't disappoint us !

Adrienne C.

It is hard to find quality television and to have a show of this caliber cancelled is practically criminal. It is comparable with the BBC's Call the Midwives which has very high ratings on both the national and international levels. Such exceptional shows with such strong heroines should be continued.

James J.

It's an untold part of Canada's history

Beth J.

Education, visibility, for these types Of Characters To Be Recognized And Appreciated

Judith B.

Save this show because we like it. Give it a time slot to allow it to continue to thrive. The show is comic, tragic, educational, entertaining, thought-provoking and so much more. It is Canadian television at its best and an opportunity to show younger people what women's lives were like. Strong female characters are not shown enough. We need to save this show.

Sophie P.

I love Bomb Girls and I'm very attached to all of the characters. There are so many unresolved problems and so many fans. You can't just end it!! Bomb Girls is a show anybody can enjoy and it's gaining popularity! I just went to a Jill Barber concert. She was in an episode once and she mentions Bomb Girls at every show! It would be stupid to waste such potentiel and end the show now. So many diverse people watch Bomb Girls, it's crazy! I'm a fourteen year old girl and I'm in the fandom, my 40 or 50 something male math teacher watches it, and so does my aunt. It needs to continue!!

Kevin K.

I only recently discovered this show in the UK and quite frankly I love it! It's is charming while dark in places but ultimately a very smart and sweet telling of an interesting story. When I heard it was to be cancelled I was quite suprised just how upset I was. Needless to say I am fully behind the SaveBombGirls campaign which many are. If it isn't making enough money in its current format there must be more that can be done to make the show viable. Perhaps the show can be sold to more international markets, if it can be enjoyed in England, it can be enjoyed in other places too. Also a focus more on the online numbers and advertising that goes with that would create a different financial picture for the program surely? Regardless, I am thoroughly unhappy with your decision and do hope you will reconsider, we need a new season, not just a tv movie.

TM R.

Thank you for airing this show, but please reconsider your decision to cancel it. The writing is incredible, the actors are believable and the stories are rich in content! We women are finally being seen as more than just eye candy or slaves to a home. Through our many faults we are strong and persevere and not so easily dismissed. This show is a fantastic opportunity to enrich other people's view of what women can accomplish behind the scenes and make us stronger in front of them as well. I love the fact that these ladies are not being exploited as we see so much in our current shows. "Kate's" burlesque performance was so damn sexy. Betty faces her struggles head on and won't back down - I love her ballsy approach. Lorna, mother to them all and still she's shown growing and conquering her fears. And don't get me started on the stories. So compelling, so dramatic, so witty, so engaging and so spot on! Tackling the struggles we all face daily - equality, independence, interracial relationships, racism, secrets, friendship and family. C'mon Global TV! You're a staple right next to the Jays, the Leafs and maple syrup - help Bomb Girls secure their place as a home grown force to be reckoned with as well. Please give them their due for (at the very least) a five season run! Thanks for reading.

Ian M.

Typically, the fact that a TV show or movie was Canadian would be enough to keep me from not watching it. They are often plagued by poor production values: bad scripts, lame acting, and uninteresting story lines. By trying to hard to be authentically Canadian, they frequently ended up looking inauthentic. But there was something about Bomb Girls that said "give me a chance." After watching one episode I was hooked. It is such a unique show in so many ways. Few movies or TV shows set during WWII focus on the home front and certainly not on the lives of women working in a munitions plant, let alone one in Toronto. It tells a unique story about a part of our history that I suspect most Canadians are unfamiliar with. And it does so in a most interesting way. It depicts realistic characters (all brilliantly acted) in realistic situations. It's obviously Canadian, but never in a contrived manner. I believe Bomb Girls has become a victim of a broadcasting system discriminate against Canadian content. In order for a show like it to succeed, it requires the network committed to backing it. Changing it's viewing night and then putting it on hiatus to air a cheesy reality show, do not demonstrate a real commitment. In fact, it appears that viewership dropped significantly after that 6 week break. The network needs to show some vision and determination to commit to the show, by keeping it on the same night, buying a significant number of episodes and airing it consistently. Global, you've given up the good fight too soon. Please reconsider your decision, Bomb Girls is a surefire Canadian TV success story, just give it a chance.

Marcy M.

Programming on most channels is absolutely disgusting with repeats over and over again and to see a series as interesting and magnetic at Bomb Girls gave myself and many people I know in renewed hope that the network would continue with a running series of it such as Roots. It appears that some management on certain networks don't see a good thing when they have it. If this continue I'm getting rid of a lot of the different networks. Bring 'Bomb Girls' back!

Maureen B.

There are not that have enough quality shows on T.V.anymore.I enjoy the strong female characters who, are not man haters. Please renew this show, we send enough drivel to you so you know how bad our shows are. But honestly Americans appreciate good television.

Kelly F.

TV Shows like this dont come around often, and when they do, they need to be cherished. I live in the states and have fallen in love with the show. I am deeply saddened by the end of this show. Even though their will be a movie special in its place. I need my girls.

chashawna a.

this is a great show please dont cancel it

Kerry T.

Bomb girls is an inspiring show that showcases women in a strong role, showing what everyone, men and women were going through during a difficult war time. It is historic and relevant and incredibly interesting. the show itself is very well done, I absolutely love the characters and am always interested to see the next development in there roles. This show is an inspiration to me and helps me understand the life my grandmother had a little bit more.

Ocean K.

Bomb Girls is an inspirational program that showcases both the strength of Canada and the strength of women. Recently on TV there isn't much worth watching it's the same garbage repeated channel after channel Bomb Girls is something different, something engaging, and something special.

kamila j.

:D the best!

Polly H.

loved it

Johanna F.

This is a brilliant series that doesn't hesitate to tackle difficult stories or character journeys. It is beautifully written, the cast is stellar, and the set feels completely authentic. I've learnt a lot about the time period, and each episode captured me from beginning to end! I have also noticed that the show seems to have a diverse audience in terms of age group, background and interests, something that should be celebrated! I want to see more seasons of Bomb Girls, like the final episode concluded - this is not the beginning of the end, it's the end of the beginning.

Rori H.

Because it is an incredibly important historical show!

Jennifer R.

I love this show and it is one that I can watch with my family. I love the history showing how the women and men dealt with the war. It opens so many discussions in my household.. The acting is wonderful and the sets are beautiful. Please don't cancel this. I am sick and tired of watching "reality" shows and greatly enjoy this riveting drama

Chrysty B.

It shows us what took place in world war II, I love the story

Sophia P.

I love this show! It gives me a view into the world my grandparents lived in during their youth. My grandfather was a rear gunner with the RAF, and this time was the prime of his life. Aside from that, the characters are so strong and interesting, I could watch endless seasons of Bomb Girls!

Carla L.

I had family fight, die, and get captured in WWII. It is great television with facts and fiction. It is a shame that this show has been cancelled. It's better than so much that is out there. Most programs on T.V. are awful and this has sustenance. I don't feel like my brain is rotting when I watch Bomb Girls. We had brave men who had to fight in that war. This show honours their commitment to our country and freedom. It also paved the way for women in the workforce.

A C.

This is a smart, well-written show - the type of programming which deserves space on television. Through the lens of time, we are better able to examine the roots of the women's movement, Canada's nationhood and our multicultural mosaic. Bomb Girls also reminds Canadians of history we would like to forget (incarceration and/or relocation of Japanese and Italians residents), and as the adage goes "Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it". I hope you will renew this program so we can continue to have a glimpse of the lives our mothers and grandmothers lived and the challenges faced by all Canadians during the Second World War.

Elaine H.

1. It is a series filmed in Canada with Canadian actors, keeping jobs here. It shows an era during the war years that some people are not aware of & I have enjoyed watching it weekly. I agree that it broaches many issues. I have to agree with all of the positive reasons given in former comments & I hope that they reconsider & continue the series.

Wendy s.

I love this show.

Ryanne L.

There are few shows I really truly love and I have seen many great shows like Bomb Girls get cancelled. I went out of my way to find a petition to sign this time to keep this show going. Every episode I watch presents me with an idea of what women had to struggle through everyday in a not-so-distant historical era just to achieve decent treatment. Bomb Girls reminds me to be grateful for the courage and heart women in the past showed during difficult and unjust social situations which eventually led to a more liberated lifestyle for modern day women, including myself. I connect with the characters in the show and appreciate the interesting plot lines. I have yet to see a boring episode. I ask that you please reconsider your decision and renew Bomb Girls. You will always have a loyal fan in me. Thank you so much for your time.

Tara O.

Please keep quality programming like this alive! It's so important for us to see history come alive like this. To understand what life was like for the people who fought through WWII on both the home front and front lines. Please honor those who served and sacrificed by offering up this glimpse into their realities. A taste no one else has offered so well, in my opinion.

Evelyn H.

this is important to me because you have cancelled a great show. this show isnt just another series, it represent the heardships women had to go through during that time period and the new grudges and liberties that the inherited from their husbands. and i personally find this fascinating because as a young viewer this how i have a glimpse into our countries past and all the historical events that took place in a way i actually enjoy indulging myself in

Lindsay D.

Not only is it a fantastic show, with great stories and characters... but it's so refreshing to see how the war affected Canada. Wartime movies & shows are always about the US, or England... we never get our story. Bomb Girls gives us that. Plus, my Grandma riveted war planes at Canada Car & Foundry in Fort William during WWII - the planes that would've dropped the bombs made in Southern Ontario! It's like I'm reliving parts of her past through Bomb Girls.

Kelsey D.

Bomb Girls is an award-winning, critically-acclaimed show with a steady fanbase, and somehow it has been cancelled? Rather than tell the stories of the men and women who fought on the Canadian home front during WWII, Global would rather fill its slot with some syndicated American reality show. It's time to support quality programming that relates the stories of a diverse cast of characters with integrity and humanity.

Laurie S.

This show had a fantastic lesbian character, and to end it with her going to jail for murder is unacceptable and homophobic. This is a pattern of media homophobia that has been well-documented, and I know the creators of this show can do SO much better than that.

Chantal V.

Bomb Girls is a show that Canadians can be proud of. It has a fresh and innovative perspective - the perspective of the strong Canadian women supporting the war effort, their struggle to maintain families while working, their struggle to move forward in their lives regardless of the war. It depicts a different time in Canadian society and of Canadian history - an ideal way for immigrants to learn of their new country's history and achievements. It also gives those viewers in foreign countries the ability to know Canada a little better. I love this show. I love its stories. I love its characters. I love the various settings - they remind me of places I have been to when I was a little girl. I love that it is Canadian in every sense of the word. I watch it and understand where my parents and grandparents came from. Bomb Girls is worth saving and continuing to develop.

Polly M.

I accidentally ran across this wonderful period piece program while channel surfing. It was a refreshing change to the programs currently airing in the USA. Please continue producing and airing this program. I didn't find out about it until the second season. The third season, I'm sure, will yield additional faithful followers such as myself.

Sam M.

I think this show is AMAZING! I just started watching the first season on netflix, I wish I had the television channel to watch it on cable! I feel like this show is VERY inspirational to woman. It was a time in our countries history that woman were starting to gain more respect! I feel like sometimes we forget and this show reminds us that! This is why Bomb Girls should be renewed for another season!

Debra H.

Please bring "Bomb Girls" back. I love that show! My Dad served in WWII and it is personal to me. I love the authentic hairstyles and clothes

Jessica M.

I'm American and I love this show it's so fresh and new but set in the 1940s I love vintage shows that actually means something I hope another network picks up this show !!!

Bonnie & Bill N.

To whom it may concern, I don't know how we missed the cancellation of Bomb Girls - but we did. We've been noticing the re-runs through January - but waiting for Season 3 to start. Alas, I just googled, and lo and behold, this wonderful show has been cancelled. What is the matter with us in Canada?! This was an absolutely fabulous piece of television - the highlight of our week along with Murdoch Mysteries - why is it so hard to keep the good TV we produce on the air? This show was far and above anything coming out of the U.S. - to cut it makes absolutely no sense! Maybe it's too late for us to add our voice - but if anyone is listening - we're very disappointed in this decision. I read that perhaps there will be a movie - but can't find anything confirming that.

Jennifer Q.

We love the series in UK.REALLY HOPE
IT COMES BACK

Judy S.

I am hooked on the Bomb Girls!! I streamed the first two seasons on Netflix in record time,what an amazing series.
Now I am suffering from withdrawal and was saddened to hear it was cancelled.
The acting is amazing, especially by Meg
Tilly. Please bring it back the show.

Clarissa

I have watched Bomb Girls since it started. I so look forward to it coming on.
I love this show! I love watching these ladies from the 40's and that era. Please I beg of you, do not cancel this show!!! I don't know why it is when good show comes on, they cancel them, but leave these other shows that I call garbarga on.
Please listen to us and don't cancel this awesome show!

Andrea F.

How sad to find out that Bomb Girls was canceled. I just do not understand why intelligent shows like Bomb Girls are taken off the air while ridiculous and demeaning ones stay. Is the movie ever going to be shown? Just another disappointment in TV land. A sad viewer in Illinois

Alethea M.

I want more episodes! A combination of impeccable acting and brilliant writing assuredly makes this show a treasure to all audiences! For me, Netflix brought light to Bomb Girls, and oh what a pleasure it has been! I can wholeheartedly say there is no other show, and I watch many, that has captured my heart in the manner Bomb Girls has. PLEASE
CONTINUE TO KEEP THIS SHOW ALIVE!

David B.

Great show with canadian content. I am a bit of a history buff and feel people need to understand the female work force during the war was critical to the swift end of the war. also if you remember MASH the TV show started slow but with great content deveopled into a cult following.

I beseech you to Save Bomb Girls! The challenges and struggles that Betty and her friends face are still as relevant today as they were 70 years ago. Women are still struggling to be taken seriously at the workplace and are still struggling to navigate the many expectations that society has placed on them ,and that we place on ourselves. People are still being racially profiled, and some ethnicites are more covered by the umbrella of political correctness than others. Bomb Girls allows us to have a vehicle to explore these issues , while placing us at a safe (or not so safe distance) because we have learned that a society that does not learn from its mistakes is bound to repeat them. Social Analysis aside, it's a sassy show, that depicts strong women, who know who they are , and what they want, and don't have to limit themselves , or allow others to limit them. The actors , production , and writing is stellar, and the Bomb Girls still have a lot of stories to tell. SAVE BOMB GIRLS!

Dom S.

Being a UK tv viewer I find it incomprehensible that Bomb Girls has been axed, hopefully this situation will be remedied sometime very soon either through Global listening to the voices of concern and realising the huge mistake they have made or another film company picking it up. The two series shown were par excellence, from the superb acting, music, costumes to the production, Bomb Girls just oozed class. With tv awash with mediocrity viewers are crying out to be entertained and Bomb Girls is a stand out example of tv viewing of the highest quality, simply put, the girls from the blue shift must be allowed to live and fight another day!

PLEASE keep Bomb Girls on the air. My husband and I found this terrific show on Netflix and found it to be a wonderful and interesting show. The characters are talented and engaging and the plot lines truly worth watching. So much better than the reality shows and boring sitcoms. Please keep this series going! We are in dire need of decent programming in the US. Thanks!

Susan

What a quality show. If the network will stick with it, viewers will make it commercially attractive. We really need more show with this value.

I just started watching today on netflix. After six episodes so far I love this show for so many reasons. As a new fan to hear it was cancelled breaks my heart. Americans have a diverse taste in tv shows. My love of Downton Abbey, Call the Midwife and now Bomb Girls tells you of my taste. Good shows are precious and few and far between. I am angry when anything is taken from me and to end this show is unforgivable! I know words may not matter to save bomb girls but that I care enough to write matters to me. I only wish executives could find a way to care for loyal fans as much as they do the mighty dollar whether Canadian or American.

I love the second world war history, and watching episodes it's like being in this period of our history. The characters are so incredible, they are kind, beautiful and the most important thing : strong. I wait each week, in France, to see these amazing girls. Plus, the actresses are P.E.R.F.E.C.T. I love them and, canceling this show, is like losing friends. Please, don't do it, this show is too good to be canceled...! Thank you.

Muestra una visión muy importante y olvidada por la historia de lo que fue la participación de la mujer en la guerra

Canadian Content -- great show - a story we Canadians should be proud to share. Grass roots of women rights in the workforce. Too good to cancel. History is the original "reality show" pattie.osborne

Why throw away a great show that tells our history with the war and women's rights. I have lots of highschool students watching the show and they are fascinated with this piece of history. Canadians need to be proud and this show lets us shine

I love Bomb Girls. The show's cancellation has only brought out the fire and passion in its fans. We are fighting for the life of this series. With brilliant writing, superb acting, and beautiful sets and cinematography, Bomb Girls stands apart from almost every other TV show currently airing. It cannot be over now. We need more. Please, don't give up on Bomb Girls. It cannot be over now. We need more. Please, don't give up on Bomb Girls.

Canadian History, a different perspective on WWII both from Canada and from women on the homefront, and I love the dancing and music and the costumes!!!

Bomb Girls is hands down the most amazing TV drama I've EVER seen. It's the first show I've watched over and over, and still got something new out of it each time. The script is amazing and original, and the actors are so skilled at bringing the characters to life, I get lost in their world, and when the episode ends, I feel lost upon re-entering reality. I don't want these amazing characters' stories to end!

This show has portrayed a side of the WW II effort that hasn't been properly shown before, with women as the major role players! It also addresses issues that, while more prevalent 70+ years ago, still linger on today. Problems such as income disparity and sexism are dealt with. We see just how much more difficult it was for LGBT persons to live and love at that time in history. This television show has offered a rare glimpse into the world of the Have's vs. the Have Not's, those that were persecuted for their ethnicity and other racial issues, and how women proved their intelligence and worth in the workplace. A story like this, one that is so powerful, deserves to play out. Please renew it for at least one more season!

Marisa G.

This show honors women who fought for their country. Unsung heroes. The show is so authentic and well done

Peggy S.

This show ,shows the strength ,hardships and callenges that these women indured thru the war, the show is well written, well casted, I look forward to every Wednesday night. Being a seamstress that has sewn 1940's fashion for theater events it is wonderful to see the amount if detail put into this show. It will be a great loss to the fans and tv if it s not renewed!

T. L.

It's a creative show!

For an era where terrible reality television reigns supreme, we need to keep the well-scripted and acted shows in the lineup. This show is highly entertaining and is a glimpse into life that we wouldn't have known. Putting this off the air would be incredibly disappointing.

We love the show and watch it fathfully janeille f.

Avorite subject is history & being a girl adding a tad bit of romance/drama is the best mixture of show so far. Instead of watching drunkard harlots brawl on reality television, this keen perspective of American drama is just what tv needs more of !

Haze W.

With the cancellation of Flashpoint, Bomb Girls is the only Canadian show that is currently worth watching. Intelligent tv is rare, and this show hits the mark! As others have stated, it is just starting to be discovered in international markets. Give it the chance it deserves!

Jaime G.

This has become one of my favorite shows on TV. I was disappointed that the seasons were so short and beyond disappointed that the series has not been renewed for another season. the story line has been so great to follow. I tune in every week to see where their lives are taking them. I cant believe I wont be able to tune in next season to see what is going to happen in their lives next.

kaouther b.

cause it's the greatest show ever

Karen K.

So few good shows on T.V. This needs to stay on.

Michelle H.

I LOVE this show. It is such a great reminder of where we've been and what we made it through in those trying, uncertain times. We should remember those things!!!! Plus it'a just a great show.

Alison F.

Amazing to watch a female-centric show, detailing the contribution made by women during WW2. Bomb Girls has really strong writing and performances, with characters that I can relate to and don't often see portrayed on screen. It is the only show of its kind on TV.
